1	End of government as we know it: making public policy work/ Kamarck, Elaine C. -- Boulder: Lynne Rienner Publishers, 2007 In the last decades of the 20th century, many political leaders declared that government was, in the words of Ronald Reagan, "the problem, not the solution." But on closer inspection, argues Elaine Kamarck, the revolt against "government" was and is a revolt against bureaucracy - a revolt that has taken place in first world, developing, and avowedly communist countries alike. To some, this looks like the end of government. Kamarck, however, counters that what we are seeing is the replacement of the traditional bureaucratic approach with new models more in keeping with the information age economy. "The End of Government" explores the emerging contours of this new, post bureaucratic state - the sequel to government as we know it - considering: What forms will it take? Will it work in all policy arenas? Will it serve democratic ideals more effectively than did the bureaucratic state of the previous century? Perhaps most significantly, how will leadership be redefined in these new circumstances? Kamarck's provocative work makes it clear that, in addition to figuring out what to do, today's government leaders face an unprecedented number of options when it comes to how to do things. The challenge of government increasingly will be to choose an implementation mode, match it to a policy problem, and manage it well in the post bureaucratic world	50085
2	Communicating India's soft power: buddha to bollywood/ Thussu, Daya Kishan -- New Delhi: Sage Publication, 2016 A first book-length study of India's soft power, traversing international relations and international communication perspectives. As the world's largest democracy and third-biggest economy on the basis of purchasing-power parity, India offers an excellent case study of the power of culture and communication in the age of mediated international relations. This South Asia edition features a new Afterword covering latest developments including Prime Minister Narendra Modi's thrust toward Digital India and promoting Buddhism as part of India's public diplomacy	50116
3	चरण सिंह और कांग्रेस राजनीति: एक भारतीय राजनीतिक जीवन, 1937 से 1961 तक/ ब्रास, पॉल आर -- नई दिल्ली: सेज भाषा, 2018	50159

इस किताब में एक ऐसे सिद्धांतवादी और स्वाभिमानी व्यक्ति के शुरुआती जीवन का उल्लेख है जो एक समर्पित राष्ट्रवादी था। जिसने देश के लिए देश के नेताओं द्वारा चुने गए मार्ग और इसके अधिकांश पेशेवर राजनेताओं की निंदा की, जबकि अपने देश से प्यार भी किया। वह साधारण पृष्ठभूमि वाला और ग्रामीण क्षेत्र से था। लेकिन वह कोई गांव का गंवार नहीं था बल्कि अपने दम पर सफलता की सीढ़ी चढ़ने वाला बेहद बुद्धिमान शख्स था। एक मझोले जाट परिवार से ताल्लुक रखने वाले इस व्यक्ति ने उत्तरी भारत की पिछड़ी जातियों, जिनके हितों को उसने हमेशा बढ़ावा दिया और जिनकी उन्नति में उसने सबसे महत्वपूर्ण भूमिका निभाई, का एक नया सामाजिक आंदोलन खड़ा किया और उसकी पैरवी की। चरण सिंह के व्यक्तिगत संग्रह (राजनीतिक फाइलों का) के साथ ही राजनेताओं, प्रसिद्ध शख्सियतों और स्थानीय लोगों के विस्तृत साक्षात्कारों का ध्यानपूर्वक अध्ययन करने के बाद यह किताब अस्तित्व में आई है। इस किताब में उस कालक्रम के मुख्य मुद्दों और घटनाओं, जिसमें देश में हिंदू-मुस्लिम संबंधों, तेज गति से औद्योगीकरण के नेहरूवादी उद्देश्य और कृषि को प्राथमिकता देने के पक्षधरों की आकांक्षाओं के बीच संघर्ष, क़ानून व्यवस्था से जुड़े मुद्दे, राजनीति में भ्रष्टाचार और अपराध की वृद्धि, आधुनिक होते समाज में जाति व हैसियत का स्थान और उस जमाने के व्यापक गुटीय राजनीतिक लक्षणों का विवरण है।

- 4 Election 2014: a complete documentation & analysis of Indian parliamentary elections since 1952/ Ashraf, Tariq (Ed.) -- Delhi: Bookwell, 2015 50166

The World's Largest Exercise in Democracy, India's Sixteenth General Election, took nearly four weeks to complete. Spread over nine stages, 543 constituencies, 8251 Candidates, representing some 300 parties, completed for the ballots of an electorate of 814 eligible voters. In 8, 30,866 polling stations, 17, 20,080 simple, robust and apparently tamper-proof electronic voting machines were deployed. With continent-sized voters, India has learned to pull off virtually flawlessly the biggest, eye-popping democratic exercise with the kind of ease that is a part of its new brand equity

- 5 Understanding Nepal in contemporary times/ Jaiswal, Pramod (Ed.) -- New Delhi: Synergy Books India, 2017 50195

Nepal has undergone major transformation since the restoration of democracy in 1990. Within few decades, it has witnessed difficult transition from long insurgency to building peace, from autocratic regime to democratic system, from Hindu Kingdom to secular Republic, and from exclusionary and centralized power to establishing a more inclusive and federal state. The book consists of 21 research papers intended to guide scholars for an overall understanding of Nepal with regard to its society, culture, government, politics, history, bureaucratic system, and other emerging challenges. The focus is on the contemporary issues prevalent in Nepalese society such as women empowerment, identity politics, migration, disaster management, human rights, and religious conversions. The aim of the book is to serve as a handbook of comprehensive knowledge on Nepal as well as serve as a basic scholarship involving young and dynamic international scholars giving perspective on Nepal.

- 6 Indian culture diplomacy: celebrating pluralism in a globalised world/ Sahai, Paramjit -- Delhi: Vijay books India pvt. Ltd. and Indian council of world affairs, 2019 50271

The Book is a window on Indian cultural diplomacy, which is set against the backdrop of its ethos of 'Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam' (The World is a Family). It is pivoted to the 'Idea of India' that gets manifested through acceptance of diversity and celebration of pluralism. The Book in 15 chapters under 8 sections provides a comprehensive picture on the concept of cultural diplomacy; its relationship with public diplomacy and soft power; its place in the diplomatic architecture and its growing centrality. Unlike soft power, cultural diplomacy is not in the paradigm of power. The Book also provides an in depth study on the origins and evolution of Indian cultural diplomacy over the years. It reviews the role of the Ministries of Culture and External Affairs and the Indian Council for Cultural Relations (ICCR). It examines various instrumentalities, such as Cultural Agreements, Festivals of India, Cultural Centres and Chairs of Indian Studies, used by India, to achieve its objectives. The role played by Education, Media and Diaspora, as bridge builders is evaluated. The Book peeps into global cultural hubs, like the Smithsonian Institution in Washington DC and the working of cultural diplomacy at grassroots level at Chandigarh and Chicago. Two chapters in the Book look at the operation of cultural diplomacy in the Indian diplomatic missions and foreign diplomatic missions in India. This adds a practical dimension to the conceptual framework, as seen by practitioners of diplomacy. The final chapter provides an overview on the existing reality. A section on 'The Way Ahead' makes a number of practical recommendations in five clusters, to take cultural diplomacy to a higher plateau. Finally, it raises a set of pertinent issues and points for consideration by theoreticians and practitioners of cultural diplomacy. The Book would serve as a useful reference point for further studies, as it fills the existing void in the literature on cultural diplomacy

- 7 Marching Beyond Libraries: Role of Social Media and Networking/ Rautaray, Bijayalaxmi; Swain, Dillip K.; Swain, Chandrakant (Ed.) -- Delhi: Overseas Press India, 2017 50272

The book describes the changing requirements and features of modern integrated library management software (ILMS) to fulfil the increasing user needs with the development of technologies. It highlights the user's expectations with modern state of the art ILMS and how it influences the library system and services. Paper describes some of the Web 2.0 based social networking features of Koha ILMS which makes it different and popular from any other ILMS in the Indian context in the present scenario. It also describes the use of such networking tools and some technical detail about its activation and deactivations in Koha ILMS. This Book also attempted to highlight the significance of such tools in library management solutions

- 8 Analysis of Emile Durkheim's: on suicide/ Easthope, Robert -- London: Routledge, 2017 50353

Durkheim's aim was to analyse the nature of suicide in the context of society itself – examining it not just as an individual decision, but one in which different social factors played important roles. In order to do this, it was vital that he both define and classify suicide into subtypes – kinds of suicide with different causal factors at play. From his research, Durkheim identified four broad types of suicide: egoistic (from a sense of not-belonging), altruistic (from a sense that group goals far outweigh individual well-being), anomic (from lack of moral or social direction), and fatalistic (in response to excessive discipline or oppression). These definitions opened the way for Durkheim to pursue a close social analysis examining how each type related to different social contexts. While his study is in certain ways dated, it remains classic precisely because it helped define the methodology of sociology itself – in which interpretative skills remain central.

- 9 Saving international adoption: an argument from economics and personal experience/ Montgomery, Mark Powell -- Nashville: Vanderbilt University Press, 2018 50369

This book argues that opposition to adoption ostensibly based on the well-being of the child is often a smokescreen for protecting national pride. Concerns about the harm done by transracial adoption are largely inconsistent with empirical evidence. As for trafficking, opponents of international adoption want to shut it down because it is too much like a market for children. But this book offers a radical challenge to this view—that is, what if instead of trying to suppress market forces in international adoption, we embraced them so they could be properly regulated? What if the international system functioned more like open adoption in the United States, where birth and adoptive parents can meet and privately negotiate the exchange of parental rights? This arrangement, the authors argue, could eliminate the abuses that currently haunt international adoption. The authors challenge the prevailing wisdom with their economic analyses and provocative analogies from other policy realms. Based on their own family's experience with the adoption process, they also write frankly about how that process feels for parents and children.

- 10 Women in the holocaust: a feminist history/ Waxman, Zoe -- Oxford: Oxford University Press, 2017 50372

Despite some pioneering work by scholars, historians still find it hard to listen to the voices of women in the Holocaust. Learning more about both the women who survived and who did not survive the Nazi genocide—through the testimony of the women themselves—not only increases our understanding of this terrible period in history, but necessarily makes us rethink our relationship to the gendered nature of knowledge itself. This book is about the ways in which socially and culturally constructed gender roles were placed under extreme pressure; yet also about the fact that gender continued to operate as an important arbiter of experience. Indeed, paradoxically enough, the extreme conditions of the Holocaust—even of the death camps—may have reinforced the importance of gender. Whilst men and women for no greater reason than their being Jewish were sentenced to death, gender nevertheless operated as a crucial signifier for survival. Pregnant women as well as women accompanied by young children or those deemed incapable of hard labour were sent straight to the gas chambers. The very qualities which made them women were manipulated and exploited by the Nazis as a source of dehumanization. Moreover, women were less likely to survive the camps even if they were not selected for death. Gender therefore became a matter of life and death.

- 14 Doing sociology in India: genealogies, locations and practices/ Patel, Sujata (Ed.) -- New Delhi: Oxford University Press, 2016 50417

This important volume on the history of sociology in India locates scholars, scholarship, theories, perspectives, and practices of the discipline in different cities and regions of the country over a century. It argues that this history is enmeshed in political projects of constructing a 'society', which took place as a result of colonialism and dominant nationalism. The book affirms the existence of both strong and weak traditions of scholarship in India and underscores three processes that have aided this development at various points of time: reflexive interrogation of received scholarship; probing ideal types of theories within classrooms; and questioning existing debates on society and its language by the public.

- 15 Higher education and professional ethics: roles and responsibilities of teachers/ Sethy, Satya Sundar (Ed.) -- London: Routledge, 2018 50418

This book discusses the significance, relevance, and usefulness of professional ethics in the context of higher education. It highlights the pivotal role of professional ethics in offering teachers a better understanding of their responsibilities, duties, rights, and institutional obligations as they work to provide quality education. The volume investigates the connection between the adoption of professional ethics by individual faculty members in higher education and the development of work cultures in higher educational institutions. It explores the requisite modifications of the Teachers' Code of Ethics in relation to the usage of Information and Communication Technologies (ICTs) in teaching-learning platforms. While examining the validity, reliability, and application of professional ethics in the higher education sector, the book also illustrates the application of codes of ethics to resolve conflicting interests and commitments.

- 19 Ten Studies in Kashmir: History and Politics/ Pandit, Kashinath -- New Delhi: Academic Foundation, 2019 50422

This volume contains ten studies on various aspects of the current history and politics of the State of Jammu and Kashmir, We have copious literature on the subject and various opinions have been advocated by the historians in the country and outside, The present volume is an addition to the printed fund on Kashmir issue but with some notable significance. Firstly, it has not taken the history in a linear pattern but has selected ten themes for research and discussion. Obviously, there is an interesting sprinkling of information that has remained unnoticed by earlier scholars. The genesis of Kashmir issue as discussed in the relevant chapter speaks of deep insight into the little disclosed and less debated aspects of Kashmir narrative. The author has been a personal witness to many of the events besides having come into contact with assorted groups of Kashmiri civil society which lends credibility to his statements. Hopefully, researchers and Kashmir experts will find a good deal of amusing information which otherwise they would have missed, for the time being, There is nothing like the last word in the field of research in historical events but digging out more information and more evidence has its own value which cannot be underestimated

- 20 दीनदयाल उपाध्याय एवं भारतीय अर्थव्यवस्था/ अग्रवाल, मनोज कुमार; कर्ण, विजय कुमार (संपादक) -- नई दिल्ली: ऐकडेमिक फाउंडेशन, 2019 50423

भारतीय अर्थव्यवस्था वर्तमान में तीव्र गति से उभरती हुई अर्थव्यवस्था है। यहाँ संसाधनों की उपलब्धता भी तेजी से बढ़ रही है। आज भारत का विकास दर दुनिया की बड़ी अर्थव्यवस्थाओं में सबसे तीव्र गति से विकास पथ पर अग्रसर है। भारत शीघ्र ही विश्व की पाँचवी सबसे बड़ी अर्थव्यवस्था बनने की ओर गतिशील है। परंतु यह विडम्बना भी है कि आज भारत में विश्व की सर्वाधिक गरीबी एवं कुपोषण विद्यमान है। ऐसा इसलिए है कि हमने भारतीय संस्कृति के अनुरूप आर्थिक रणनीतियों को नहीं अपनाया। अपितु पश्चिमी मॉडल का अवांछित अनुसरण करते चले जा रहे हैं। इन परिस्थितियों में पंडित दीनदयाल उपाध्याय के आर्थिक चिंतन के अनुरूप आर्थिक रणनीति अपनाने के क्रम में इस पुस्तक में विभिन्न पहलुओं का अध्ययन करने का प्रयास किया गया है। इस चिंतन के अध्ययन का उद्देश्य समाज के अंतिम छोर तक विकास के प्रकाश को पहुंचाना है। यह पुस्तक आर्थिक चिंतकों, नीति-निर्माताओं व शोधकर्ताओं को दीनदयाल उपाध्याय के आर्थिक विकास के मॉडल को समझने हेतु अत्यंत उपयोगी साबित होगी।

- 21 Rise of the Indo-Pacific: perspectives, dimensions and challenges/ Mahapatra, Chintamani (Ed.) -- New Delhi: Pentagon Press LLP, 2019 50424

A new concept of `Indo-Pacific` has entered into the geopolitical discourse and the lexicon of International Relations. There is no unanimity of views on the definition of the emerging concept of Indo-Pacific. Yet, Indo-Pacific region as a new geopolitical concept appears to have come to stay. Three major developments have taken place in recent years leading to emergence of the concept of `Indo-Pacific` that does not replace but subsumes the geopolitical construct, hitherto known as the `Asia-Pacific`. The newest development, of course, is the rise of India as an economic powerhouse and influential political actor in world affairs, particularly in Asian affairs. Second most important development is China`s assertive foreign policy and use of military strength to assert its sovereignty on disputed islands in the South China Sea. The third important development is erosion of self-confidence of Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) that used to display its image as a triumphant political grouping in a region, despite diversity in terms of political system, economic philosophy, religious beliefs and socio-cultural traditions. The present book is a by-product of two days of intense deliberations among large number of scholars on various issues and challenges faced by the countries of the Indo-Pacific region. The book includes the perspectives of major powers in the Indo-Pacific, analyses critical regional security issues, such as sovereignty issues in South China Sea, the rise of QUAD, role of soft power, challenges to ASEAN centrality and regionalism, and examines the non-traditional security threats, such as terrorism, nuclear proliferation, environmental degradation, drugs trafficking and health hazards.

- 22 Tribal religion: continuity and change among the Tangkhul Naga/ Joy, Rimai; -- Jaipur: Rawat Publications, 2019 50425

Religion is a set of beliefs and practices generally held by an individual and community, involving adherence to codified rituals. Special emphasis of this study is indigenous religion, its organisation and functioning in the traditional and modern context. This anthropological study maps the traditional indigenous religion of the Tangkhul Naga tribe of Manipur, Northeast India. The research goes back to the history of Tangkhul Nagas to find out about the traditional religion (Hao), its rituals, festivals, customs and practices. Thereafter, it explores the process of change that has occurred with the coming of western missionaries and introduction of Christianity. It studies the correlation, continuity and change in the institution of religion from their traditional Hao religion to Christianity. It further talks about cultural renaissance wherein conscious efforts are being made by the local people to revive their nearly forgotten traditions and culture.

- 23 समकालीन परिदृश्य और प्रभा खेतान के उपन्यास/ कुर्रे, रेखा; भारतीय सामाजिक विज्ञान अनुसन्धान परिषद, -- नई दिल्ली: हिन्दी बुक सेंटर, 2019 50426

समकालीन परिदृश्य और प्रभा खेतान' में युवा आलोचक रेखा कुर्रे ने प्रभा खेतान के उपन्यासों पर वृहत्तर संदर्भों में विचार किया है। यह पुस्तक आपको प्रभा खेतान के पूरे व्यक्तित्व, कृतित्व के साथ उनकी पूरी वैचारिकी को विस्तृत रूप में गहराई से प्रस्तुत करती है। प्रभा खेतान ने रुढ़िबद्ध मारवाड़ी समाज की स्त्री होने के बावजूद स्त्री अस्मिता, स्वतंत्रता और आर्थिक स्वतंत्रता की चेतना को बेबाकी के साथ अपने उपन्यासों और अपनी आत्मकथा में चित्रित किया है। स्त्री ने आज नए-नए मुकाम अवश्य हासिल किये हैं किन्तु उस लक्ष्य को प्राप्त करने के लिए उन्हें पितृसत्तात्मक व्यवस्था में स्त्री जीवन की सच्चाई को बाल्यावस्था से जीवन के विभिन्न पड़ावों में सामाजिक, राजनीतिक, आर्थिक, धार्मिक और सांस्कृतिक रूप में गहराई से देखने और समझने का यह एक माध्यम रहा है। स्त्री जीवन तथा स्त्री-पुरुष संबंधों से जुड़े उन तमाम सवालों को इस पुस्तक में उठाया गया है। हिंदी साहित्य के महिला लेखन की पूरी परंपरा में प्रभा खेतान के उपन्यासों की महत्ता और उपलब्धि को दर्शाया गया है। अस्तित्ववाद, मार्क्सवाद, नारीवाद, भूमंडलीकरण से लेकर उत्तर आधुनिकता के विमर्शों में स्त्री विमर्श तक की चर्चा प्रभा

खेतान के विचारो के माध्यम से प्रस्तुत की गई है। समकालीन परिदृश्य में सामाजिक परिवर्तनों की चर्चा उपन्यासों के माध्यम से की गई है। यह पुस्तक स्त्री - पुरुष के संबंधो की गहराई से पड़ताल भी करता है। वर्तमान समय में स्त्री जीवन की अनेक विडंबनों और सवालो को भी उठाता हैं। साथ ही साथ इन सवालो के जवाब साक्षात्कार के माध्यम से लेखिकाओं के विचारों को भी व्यक्त करती हैं। अतः इस पुस्तक के सन्दर्भ में यह दृष्टव्य है की रेखा कुर्रे ने स्त्री विमर्श और सामाजिक परिदृश्य के आलोक में प्रभा खेतान के उपन्यासों की न केवल सूक्ष्म पड़ताल की है बल्कि स्त्री - जीवन के व्यापक अनुभवों की कसौटी पर इसका तार्किक मूल्यांकन भी प्रस्तुत साहित्य प्रेमियों और अध्येताओं को अपनी ओर आकर्षित करेगी। साथ ही साथ शोधार्थियों के लिए भी यह पुस्तक महत्वपूर्ण साबित होगी!

- 24 Community participation, education and tribes: comparisons of states and communities/ Srinivasa Rao, V.; -- New Delhi: Manak Publications, 2019 50427

This volume examines the concept of community participation in education across states i.e. Andhra Pradesh & Kerala and communities i.e. tribal and non-tribal. Community participation has emerged as the best practice in education to achieve universal enrolment while improving the quality and relevance of teaching and learning. The empirical data presented in the sixth chapter on the participation of scheduled tribes in school-related activities in Andhra Pradesh and Kerala reveals that their understanding of community ownership over schools is not so impressive across the states. The empirical data presented in the seventh chapter reveals that the tribal community are little backward in terms of community ownership of schools while comparing with non-tribal communities in Andhra Pradesh. The book will be useful to the scholars, researchers, NGOs and policymakers in education, tribal studies, development studies, sociology, anthropology and political science.

- 25 Bureaucracy and development administration: a case study of Karnataka/ Srinivasrao, Mouneshwara;-- Jaipur: Rawat Publications, 2019 50428

The present administrative structure of India has emerged from the British colonial system which was solely concerned with the maintenance of law and order and collection of revenue. After independence, the functions of government underwent a fundamental change. The responsibility of bringing about desired economic and political change in India has in greater part fallen on the bureaucracy, which was built up over the years by the British to suit their objectives. With the adoption of new goals and objectives, the functioning of bureaucracy also underwent changes. Formerly the bureaucracy in India had to function in the background of colonial rule, but it was now supposed to work in the framework of a democracy with the active involvement of the people for whose welfare the state existed. The fundamental question in the context of India was whether the administrative system developed and nurtured in a colonial setting could play an appropriate role in a free democratic state committed to a socialistic pattern of society and simultaneously respond to the exigencies of development. Development administration is the process of carrying out development programmes and projects in the direction of nation building and socio-economic progress through an administrative organization. The primary objective of this study is to probe the origin and evolution of bureaucracy and the state of development in India in general and Karnataka in particular.

- 26 ग्रामीण समुदाय में जनसंख्या नियंत्रण एवं नियोजन/ रजनीकान्त नीरज; भारतीय -- नई दिल्ली: हिन्दी बुक सेन्टर, 2019 50429

प्रस्तुत शोध 'ग्रामीण समुदाय में जनसंख्या नियंत्रण एवं नियोजन (वाराणसी जनपद के हरहुआ विकासखंड पर आधारित एक समाजशास्त्रीय अध्ययन है) इसमें पूर्वी उत्तर प्रदेश के वाराणसी जनपद के हरहुआ विकासखंड में अवस्थित पाँच गाँवों क्रमशः मुर्दहा, बेलवरिया, चौका (भुसौला) सत्यबालपुर, उंदी आदि गाँवों की विवाहित महिलाओं एवं पुरुषों में परिवार नियोजन की अभिस्वीकृति एवं परिवार नियोजन के प्रति उनकी उन्मुखता तथा जनसंख्या वृद्धि के प्रति उनकी जागरूकता का तथ्यपरक विश्लेषण किया गया है। शोध के अंतर्गत जनसंख्या समस्या को ग्रामीण परिदृश्य में विवेचित करने का प्रयास किया गया है। भारतीय समाज में जनसंख्या की तीव्र वृद्धि ने विकास के अधिकांश लाभों को प्रगतिहीन बना दिया है। ग्रामीण समाजशास्त्र के प्रसंग में लिखित एक मौलिक पाठ्यग्रंथ का रूप दिया गया है। इसमें जनसंख्या नियंत्रण एवं नियोजन के विभिन्न कार्यक्रमों की प्रभाविकता एवं परिणामों का सम्यक विश्लेषण किया है। किसी भी देश की जनसंख्या में जनांकिकी प्रारूप अर्थात् जन्म-मृत्युदर, औसत आयु स्थिति, स्त्री-पुरुष का सामयिक अनुपात आदि पहलुओं को दर्शाया गया है। समग्र रूप में पुस्तक की उपादेयता उच्च शोध कार्यों में संलग्न शोधकर्ता, जनसंख्या नियंत्रण एवं ग्रामीण समाजशास्त्र आदि के लिए महत्व की वस्तु होगी।

- 27 Gender, power relations and childbirth: negotiations with cultural and biomedical discourses/ Kant, Aastha -- Jaipur: Rawat Publications, 2019 50430

Gender, Power Relations and Childbirth: Negotiations with Cultural and Biomedical Discourses explores different ways in which women from a resettlement colony mobilize knowledge, resources and support systems in negotiating patriarchal control of their pregnant and birthing bodies. It analyses the way women use plural and often contradictory discourses of cultural and biomedical knowledge simultaneously, to deal with the various societal demands over their pregnancies and childbirths. It addresses questions such as how do women manoeuvre traditional and institutional exercise of power and strategize their experiences? Their strategies of compliance and resistance are explored to gain insights into the everyday experience of gender-power relations and women's continuous efforts to counter their subordination.

- 28 Policy and technological options for doubling of farmer's income/ Sangwan, Sher Singh; Gagan Deep (Ed.) -- Chandigarh: Centre for Research in Rural and Industrial Development, 2018 50431

This book is a compilation of edited papers, presented in the National Seminar on 'Policy and Technological Options for doubling of Farmers' The seminar was organised by State Bank of India (SBI) Chair, Centre for Research in Rural and Industrial Development (CRRID) on March 22-23, 2018. In total, 33 of 60 papers received from 15 States were presented in the seminar at CRRID. These papers are mainly based on primary surveys, though some scholars have used secondary data too. The current policies relating to agriculture and new options for increasing farmers' income are critically examined to bring out the actionable policy inputs for the stakeholders

- 29 Industrial research, development and innovation in central public sector enterprises/ Mishra, R. K.; Arora, Parveen; Satish, N. G.; Institute of Public Enterprise, Hyderabad -- New Delhi: Academic Foundation, 2019 50432

Successive Union Governments in India have laid emphasis on R&D and innovation through several targeted programmes and incentives. Central Public Sector Enterprises have a pride of place in India's industrial set up. Over two-hundreds of these enterprises cater to almost all the cognates that Impact us on a daily basis. The product and service focus of these enterprises span the core manufacturing, mining, defence, power generation and distribution, shipbuilding, telecommunication, textiles and more. Their foray in services includes education tourism, consultancy and others. Given the CPSEs footprint, their role in R&D and innovation is crucial not only to meet the enterprises' core objectives but also to sustain in the competitive domestic market. Investment in R&D, innovation and the resultant new technologies are at the centre of India's industrial progress. The present work industrial Research, Development & Innovation in CPSEs is an outcome of research carried out by the Institute of Public Enterprise for the Department of Science & Technology, New Delhi, and subsequently critically appraised by the authors. The research has utilized the available published literature on the subject, consulted the experts in the field, and collected primary, data through questionnaires and interviews of the concerned officials from the CPSEs. The study also presents the publicly available details on the current R&D infrastructure strength of the CPSEs and their respective R&D programmes. The book attempts to capture the status of R&D and innovation in CPSEs and provide the required background understanding for policymaking. It would be of interest to all the CPSEs and firms in other sectors.

- 30 Chasing high growth rate and trust with inclusiveness: India during 2004-14/ Gill, Sucha Singh -- Chandigarh: Centre for Research in Rural and Industrial Development, 2019 50433

The book attempts to examine objectively the growth performance and achievement of inclusive development in India during 2004-14. The factors and processes that led to the achievement of high growth rate have been analysed and examined especially when the global economy entered a period of a prolonged recession. A conscious effort was made by the government during the period under study to make economic development more equitable and inclusive in nature. The book endeavours to examine the factors which circumscribed the development process to keep the benefits with a small proportion of the population. The analysis here is guided by economic theory as well as the mediation of public policy. The emphasis has been to examine India's successful growth story with a view to putting the country on the sustained path of high and inclusive development. The book also identifies some important issue which merits the attention of policymakers for keeping the economy on the path of fast and inclusive development on a sustainable basis.

- 31 Muslim empowerment: reflections from Punjab and Haryana/ Ahmed, Shaik Iftikhar -- Chandigarh: Centre for Research in Rural and Industrial Development, 2018 50434

Muslims are the largest among the religious minorities in India, Various commission reports and studies reveal that Muslims are less privileged in the field of literacy and education, industrial promotion, health sector and economic pursuits. Though the government of India has taken up many initiatives to improve upon the issues relating to the social, economic and political status of India's Muslim minority, the ground realities differ. The present book is an attempt to evaluate these initiatives and highlight the issues hampering the growth and development of the Muslim minority in Punjab and Haryana.

- 32 Right to education in Haryana: an appraisal/ Duggal, Bindu -- Chandigarh: Centre for Research in Rural and Industrial Development, 2018 50435

The book examines the current situation of education in Haryana with respect to major features of the Right to Education (RTE) Act. It attempts to strengthen policy research focussing on the implementation of the RTE Act in the state. It contributes in its own humble way towards policy making and applied research by not only highlighting the gaps between the commitments laid out in the RTE Act and its achievements but by also providing suggestions to bridge the same.

- 33 Educational status of children in orphanages of Jammu & Kashmir/ Kuldip Kaur -- Chandigarh: Centre for Research in Rural and Industrial Development, 2018 50436

The present publication is a comprehensive survey of orphanages of Jammu, Kashmir and Ladakh regions. It examined the access status of education among orphan children residing in orphanages. Three types of institutions have been found imparting education to children of selected orphanages: (i) education within the campus of the orphanage; (ii) private and (iii) government schools. Secular, religious and skilled orientation types of education in the formal and non-formal way of teaching has been imparted to orphan children. Primary and secondary data was collected from the managers/ head of the orphanages as well as from children residing in orphanages. In total, 33 orphanages. However the implication of the study reveals the further scope of replication on a large scale for educational empowerment of Children residing in orphanages by considering the provision of RTE Act (2000)

- 34 Road communication in North-East India and beyond: bridging culture and people/ Dutta, Tarun (Ed.) -- New Delhi: Concept Publishing, 2018 50437

The North-eastern region of India is important for its strategic, socio-economic and cartographic position where "South East Asia begins or ends, and it constitutes a transition zone where the Indo-Caucasian and Mongoloid racial stocks intermingle". Though the region situated in an important position the notion of connectivity is far from development which hampered the peoples' relationship. From hills to plains, in different period, roads were developed for different aims and objectives. The development was very less during early period, when the colonial ruler used roads as an instrument of controlling people. Political and economic importance was the basis of making road in this region until WW II, when its importance shifted to military purpose, known as War Road. The book "Road Communication in North East India and Beyond: Bridging People and Culture" is addressing all these issues along with community importance of road and trying to find out a policy which shall be pertinent in the region concerned.

- 35 BCIM economic cooperation: interplay of geo-economics and geo-politics/ Das, Gurudas; Thomas, C. Joshua (Ed.) -- London: Routledge, 2019 50438

This book examines the strategic and economic logic behind the Bangladesh–China–India–Myanmar (BCIM) Regional Cooperation. According to estimates, BCIM covers approximately 9 percent of the world's mass and 40 percent of the world's population spanning across four countries, constituting the confluence of East, Southeast and South Asia. It contributes about 13 percent to world trade but ironically only 5 percent to inter-regional trade. This volume compares the various approaches to cooperation – trade-led vs project-led, geo-political vs geo-strategic, Sino-centric vs India-led. The chapters explore the complex interplay of geo-economics and geo-politics associated with BCIM sub-regional cooperation in general, and the BCIM Economic Corridor (BCIM-EC) in particular. It points to the current challenges that impede globalisation and economic growth, and critically reviews implications for the stakeholders, institutional frameworks and the spatial impact of the Corridor, especially on the underdeveloped regions. The book discusses the geo-political, geo-economic and geo-strategic advantages that will accrue to the member countries once the sub-regional cooperation becomes fully functional. It advocates the adoption of best practices from similar sub-regional groupings across the globe

- 42 Farmer producer organizations and agri-marketing: experiences in selected states, relevance and their performance in Punjab/ Verma, Satish -- Chandigarh: CRRID, 2018 50470
- Banking in Himachal Pradesh though remains mostly rudimentary yet it has expanded immensely particularly in the rural areas reducing the rural-urban disparities. People in the state are credit shy. But, they have exhibited a high order of credit discipline. Non- institutional sources, in particular the friends and relatives, play a dominant role in the rural credit market in the state. These and several other issues, using the field survey data, have been comprehensively analysed in this book. In addition, the book fills the void in the scant literature on banking in Himachal Pradesh.

- 43 Third pillar: how markets and the state leave the community behind/ Rajan, Raghuram G. -- Noida: HarperCollins Publishers, 2019 50508

Raghuram G. Rajan has an unparalleled vantage point on the socio-economic consequences of globalization and their ultimate effect on politics. In The Third Pillar, he offers a big-picture framework for understanding how these three forces - the state, markets and communities - interact, why things begin to break down, and how we can find our way back to a more secure and stable plane. The 'third pillar' is the community we live in. Economists all too often understand their field as the relationship between markets and the state, and they leave squishy social issues for other people. That's not just myopic, Rajan argues; it's dangerous. All economics is actually socioeconomics - all markets are embedded in a web of human relations, values and norms. The Third Pillar is a masterpiece of explication, a book that will be a classic for its offering of a wise, authoritative and humane explanation of the forces that have wrought such a sea change in our lives
