Overview

It is widely regarded that social science research enhances our understanding of the society and its functioning, provides policy inputs for socio-economic development and generate ideas and information that could be used in teaching and research. Thus, social science research renders vital services to the society and the country.

India has a long and rich tradition of social science teaching and research. Takshashila, Nalanda, Vikramashila, Valabhi and Pushpagiri Universities flourished as global centres of learning in different parts of India. Social science teaching and research, however, made a formal beginning with the introduction of modern university system in the second half of the 19th century and the University of Mumbai (1857), University of Madras (1857), University of Calcutta (1857) and Allahabad University (1875) came into existence. The real breakthrough came only after Independence with the rapid expansion of higher education system as a part of the planned socio-economic development programme. As the country's development process threw up numerous and diverse problems that required extensive research and analysis, Government of India established a Committee for Social Science Research under the chairmanship of Professor V.K.R.V Rao in 1965 to review the social science research scenario in the country and make recommendations to accelerate its progress. This led to the establishment of the Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR) in 1969 to encourage, promote and fund social science research in the country.

The ICSSR is an autonomous body under the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India and a premier organisation with Six Regional Centres, 24 Research Institutes and Five Recognised Research Institutes located in different parts of the country.

The ICSSR's aims and objectives as spelt out in its Memorandum of Association (MoA) are the following:

- Review and survey the progress of Social Science Research and advise the Government on policy issues;
- Fund and promote Social Science Research in Universities/Colleges/ Research Institutes;
- Awarding Doctoral, Post-doctoral, Senior and National Fellowships to researchers & faculties;
- Granting Minor, Major and Collaborative Research Projects to researchers and faculties;
- Funding National and International seminars and conferences to disseminate social science research findings;
- Sponsoring training and capacity building programmes for young researchers and faculties;

- Providing international travel and data collection grant to scholars and faculties;
- Encouraging international collaboration in social science research with foreign countries and funding agencies;
- Funding publication of journals and books and strengthening professional social science associations/organizations;
- Providing library, documentation, data and online services for social science research; and
- Indicating periodic themes in neglected and new critical areas of research;

During the last 50 years of its establishment, the ICSSR has been actively promoting and funding social science research in the country. It provides regular maintenance and development grant to its research institutes on matching grant basis to study national and regional issues from inter-disciplinary perspectives. It also fully supports its Six Regional Centres which represent the Council within their respective regions with a view to spread the programmes and schemes of the ICSSR. Under the international collaboration programme, ICSSR has signed bilateral collaborative agreements with 10 countries including United Kingdom, Netherlands, Switzerland, Germany, Vietnam, Sri Lanka, Japan, South Africa, Sweden, Bosnia and Herzegovina and cultural exchange programmes with Three countries, namely, France, China and Thailand to engage in activities such as exchange of scholars, joint seminars, research projects, publications, exchange of books and periodicals. The ICSSR also participates in the activities of the international social science organizations like International Federation of Social Science Organisations (Quezon City, Philippines), International Social Science Council (Paris, France), Association of Asian Social Science Research Councils (Canberra, Australia) and Science Council of Asia (Tokyo, Japan) as their important member.

Since its inception, the ICSSR has granted 6352 Major, Minor and Collaborative Research Projects, awarded 8106 Doctoral (6020 Full-term and 2086 Short-term) Fellowships, 2305 Post-doctoral Fellowships, 750 Senior Fellowships and 170 National Fellowships. It has sponsored 3917 National and 1036 International seminars, funded 1973 scholars for attending seminars abroad and 436 scholars for data collection abroad. The ICSSR has sponsored 962 Training & Capacity Building Programmes for young faculties and researchers, provided financial assistance to 1828 scholars for publication of their Doctoral Theses/ Projects/ Fellowship Reports/ Conference Proceedings, financially supported 975 social science journals and 367 professional associations involved in social science research activities. It has also conducted six rounds of surveys of current state of research in social science disciplines, namely Economics, Political Science, Sociology and Social Anthropology, Geography, and Psychology in the country. The ICSSR used to published two prestigious social science research journals – ‘The Indian Social Science Review’ and ‘ICSSR Journals of Abstracts and Reviews’ and it has been decided to re-start these journals. Apart from this, the ICSSR provides research services like library, documentation, data and e-resources to thousands of social science scholars across the country through its National Social Science Documentation Centre (NASSDOC).

The ICSSR has been offering its research-based advice, whenever needed, to the Government of India on policy relevant issues and has contributed in the Newton-Vivekanand programme with the UK (2016), and the establishment of the Ambedkar University of Social Sciences at Mhow, Madhya Pradesh. It has also carried out studies for various Ministries of Government of India including Ministry of Social Justice & Empowerment, Ministry of Minority Affairs, Ministry of Home Affairs, and the Ministry of Science and Technology. In addition, there is considerable presence of ICSSR studies and references in various policy documents and reports of the Ministries and the Planning Commission (erstwhile). Moreover, the Member Secretary, Council members and Officers of ICSSR have regularly participated and contributed to the deliberations of other government organisations such as the University Grants Commission, Indian Statistical Institute, Indian Council of World Affairs, Indian Institute of Advanced Study, Scientific and Industrial Research Organisation etc.

As the ICSSR is going to complete fifty years of its existence, it faces significant challenges alongside opportunities for giving direction to social science research in India and abroad. According to a University Grants Commission Report (November 2018), there are 882 Universities in the country (48 Central Universities, 392 State Universities, 317 Private Universities and 125 Deemed to be Universities). Similarly, as per the data drawn from International Standard Series Number (ISSN) and Ulrich International Periodical Directory data books, there were 2131 social science journals published in India during the period 2000-2015. The ICSSR Review Report (2007) mentions that while the scale and range of social science research in the country has expanded, the quality of research output of a majority of institutions as well as their contribution to a better understanding of socio-economic processes and shaping public policy, have fallen short of expectations. The quality also needs to be improved considering that the precious resources are being spent. The research quality constitutes a major challenge for all spheres of researches in the country, including social science.

Moreover, with the introduction of National Institutional Ranking Framework in 2015, there is a greater focus on research as the rankings significantly depends on the research orientation and related output of the institutes or universities. The entire issue has raised the concerns of the policy makers to adopt newer strategies and best global practices for enhancing the research quality and culture to improve the global rankings of the Indian institutes and universities. Thus, all institutions, like ICSSR responsible for sponsoring and promoting research in the country, face this key challenge of promoting advanced, novel and cutting-edge researches to help institutes and universities in improving their national and global ranking, and also build a robust research culture in the country.

There are many opportunities that place the ICSSR in an advantageous position to play a leading role in social science research both in India as well as abroad. The 21st century is widely said to belong to Asia where Japan, India and China are perceived as major actors of which India and China have been emerging at a rapid growth rate in the last three decades. The end of the Cold War and the growing impact of globalisation also require India to redefine its position and role, both at the regional and global level. Since economic liberalisation of the 1990s, India's global presence has been steadily rising. Among major countries, India is now the fastest growing economy and world's sixth largest economy after the United States, China, Japan, Germany and United Kingdom. In next few years, it is projected to be among the largest three economies of the world. There are many issues that constitute common research concerns of the world, and at the same time there are country and policy specific research concerns that nations are interested in getting probed with a view to understand the existing problems and finding their possible solutions. Rising population, national security, development pattern, inclusiveness, inequalities, sustainability, migration and urban infrastructure could be some of such country specific concerns. Sometimes, these country specific concerns may be shared by some other countries as well. India's aspiration to become one of the global leaders in knowledge creation rests on its research capabilities and infrastructure. The researches ultimately have to and must serve the society and should contribute towards policy formulation and assessment. At the same time, the modern researches are crossing the tight compartments of disciplines and moving towards inter and multi-disciplinarity, where many disciplines combine their resources to achieve the common objective of larger welfare. In this respect, ICSSR's role acquires a greater significance. Even developments in science and technology require a social science perspective for greater acceptability of new developments and society's reaction to those developments.

India is viewed as a major stakeholder in global political, economic and technological environment, and therefore its research output is expected to have a larger share in global quality researches. New researches are leading to many paradigm shifts and are challenging colonial concepts and theories. There is also a greater emphasis in the country on analysing our problems based on our own socio-political and economic conditions instead of seeing them through unquestioned western prism. Such researches are better placed to solve various local or country specific problems and suggest innovative solutions and alternatives.

ICSSR aspires to give a Big Push to social science research in India with the support of government and other research organisations. Greatly conscious of its new role, the ICSSR has undertaken some vital steps in this regard. Now it is focusing on both, quantitative expansion of its programmes and schemes and delivery of quality research output. During the year 2018-19, the ICSSR has provided financial assistance to several hundred scholars, faculties and research organisations to encourage and promote quality social science research in the country as given in Table No.1.1.

ICSSR Organisational Structure: The ICSSR's highest decision making body, known as the Council has 26 members, which includes the ICSSR Chairman and the Member-Secretary, 18 social scientists and 6 Ex-officio members representing the Government of India. The list containing members of the Governing Council is given at Appendix -1.

The Member Secretary heads the ICSSR Secretariat consisting of Directors, Deputy Directors, Assistant Directors and other officials. The ICSSR's officials, apart from their normal official duties, have contributed research papers in journals, edited books, magazines etc. and have also delivered lectures during the reporting year.

The Council has three standing committees namely Research Committee (RC), Research Institutes Committee (RIC) and Planning and Administration Committee (PAC) comprising of members drawn both from inside and outside the Council (not more than three) for its smooth functioning. During the financial year 2018-19, the Council had three meetings (137th, 138th and 139th meeting), the RC had three meetings (170th, 171st and 172nd meeting), the RIC had three meetings (71st, 72nd and 73rd) and the PAC had three meetings (82nd, 83rd and 84th meeting).

This is the 50th Annual Report of the Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR) delineating the Council's activities from 1st April, 2018 to 31st March, 2019.

Research Promotion

Promotion of research in social sciences is the most important activity of the Indian Council of Social Science Research. The ICSSR has been doing this through its various programmes and schemes such as funding Minor, Major & Collaborative Research Projects; providing Doctoral, Post-Doctoral, Senior, and National Fellowships to scholars and faculties; awarding seminar and conference grants to disseminate social science research findings; sponsoring training and capacity building programmes for young researchers and faculties; providing international travel and data collection grants to scholars and faculties; encouraging international collaborations in research with country level funding agencies abroad; funding publication of journals and books, and strengthening professional social science associations/organizations through infrastructural grants; providing library, documentation, data and online literature services to social science researchers.

The ICSSR has identified the following broad disciplines of study within the domain of social sciences:

- a) Economics
- b) Sociology and Social Anthropology
- c) Political Science / Public Administration
- d) International Studies
- e) Social Geography and Population Studies
- f) Commerce and Management
- g) Social Psychology

- h) Education
 - i) Social Linguistics/Socio-Cultural Studies
 - j) Law / International Law
 - k) National Security & Strategic Studies
 - l) Other allied Social Science disciplines such as Library Science, Social Work, Media Studies, Modern Social History, Health Studies, Gender Studies, Environmental Studies, Diaspora Studies, Area Studies, Sanskrit-Society & Cultural Studies, etc. to promote inter-disciplinary and multi-disciplinary research.

Research Projects

Research Projects, both individual and institutional, are an important way to promote social science research in the country. The research projects may belong to any of the social science disciplines or may be multi-disciplinary in nature. The specific objectives of the programme are: a) to support high quality independent programme of research; b) to provide opportunities for training of future researchers; c) to contribute to the development of new theoretical or methodological approaches to research; d) to maintain and sustain various disciplinary research activities; e) to foster and promote collaborative, inter-disciplinary and multi-disciplinary research activities among researchers in social science; and f) to facilitate communication of research outputs both within and beyond the academic community and also to provide key inputs to policy makers.

The ICSSR awards two types of Research Projects to Indian scholars: (a) Major and Minor Research Projects earlier known as Research Projects (Responsive) and (b) Research Programmes previously known as Research Projects (Sponsored).

Major and Minor Research Projects

Major and Minor Projects are demand-driven. Under this scheme, the ICSSR provides grant to scholars to conduct research on the topics of their choice. During the year 2018-19, ICSSR approved four Major and Minor Research Projects. During this year, the final reports of 413 research projects sanctioned in earlier years were received. The total expenditure for 2018-19 for Major and Minor Projects was ₹991.68 lakhs (including ongoing/running projects).

Research Programme

Research Programme is a series of research studies undertaken simultaneously or sequentially on themes of significance and priority in policy and social science research. These studies, identified by the ICSSR from time to time, are expected to be inter-disciplinary or multi-disciplinary or inter-institutional in nature for critical understanding of new social science research issues and develop deeper understanding in terms of theory, methodology, new findings and policy outcomes. However, high impact studies which are extensive in structure but fall within the ambit of a single discipline are also considered.

The scheme of Research Projects (Sponsored) or Research Programme was launched in the year 2011-12 with All India Report on Educational Status of Scheduled Castes & Scheduled Tribes and De-notified Tribes (DNT) for various states.

The year-wise position of research programmes sanctioned, projects cancelled/withdrawn/ closed and reports received is given in Table 2.2. During the year 2018-19, the final reports of 70 sponsored research projects sanctioned in earlier years were received. During the reporting year, total expenditure for Research Programme was ₹1192.74 lakhs.

Research Fellowships

In order to provide research opportunities to young, senior and established social scientists and to engage them in full-time research on important themes of their choice, four categories of fellowships, namely National Fellowship, Senior Fellowship, Post-doctoral Fellowship and Doctoral Fellowship are offered to scholars who are at various levels in their profession.

National Fellowships

ICSSR National Fellowships are aimed at providing opportunities to eminent Indian social scientists to engage themselves in full-time research that have the potential to contribute to advancement of knowledge in social sciences on important themes of their choice or to write books based on their research. The ICSSR has so far awarded 170 National Fellowships. During the year, seven National Fellowships were awarded and eight final reports were received pertaining to previous years. The relevant details are given in Table 2.3.

Senior Fellowships

Senior Fellowships are awarded to outstanding Indian social scientists for conducting full time research on themes and issues of national importance and social concerns as proposed by the applicants. These studies are expected to contribute to theoretical and conceptual advancement in different disciplines, help to generate field work based empirical data and contribute in policy making. The ICSSR has so far awarded 750 Senior Fellowships. During the year, 49 Senior Fellowships were awarded and 38 final reports were received pertaining to previous years. The relevant details are given below in Table 2.4.

Post-doctoral Fellowships

Post-doctoral Fellowships are awarded to young Indian social scientists who have completed their doctoral research and wish to pursue a career in higher education teaching and research. They should have a high potential and promise for conducting full-time research on specific themes and issues. These studies are expected to contribute to theoretical and conceptual advancement in different disciplines, help to generate field work based empirical data and contribute in policy making. The ICSSR has so far awarded 2305 Post-doctoral Fellowships. During the year 2018-19, 224 Post-doctoral Fellowships were awarded and 184 final reports were received pertaining to previous years. The relevant details are given in Table 2.5.

Doctoral Fellowships

ICSSR provides financial assistance to registered Ph.D. scholars in social science disciplines to pursue and complete their doctoral research. The main aim is to provide financial support to scholars to enable them to focus full-time on their research work and bring out a quality research output in the form of their Ph.D. theses and publications.

ICSSR is providing Doctoral Fellowships under its 'Centrally-Administered Doctoral Fellowship Scheme' and 'Institutional Doctoral Fellowship

Scheme'. In case of 'Centrally-Administered Scheme', the fellowships are awarded and monitored directly by ICSSR and the concerned doctoral fellows are affiliated to a university or college. Under the 'Institutional Fellowship Scheme', the doctoral fellows are affiliated to and monitored by an ICSSR sponsored / recognized Research Institute. The Call for Applications for the Centrally-Administered Doctoral Fellowships is given by ICSSR and the fellowships are awarded after screening and evaluation by Expert Committees. The Call for Institutional Doctoral Fellowships are given by the respective ICSSR Research Institutes and after preliminary screening at the level of institutes, these are sent to ICSSR for the opinion of its experts. Institutional Doctoral Fellowships are essentially for a tenure of two years.

Within ICSSR's Centrally-Administered Doctoral Fellowship programme, there are following three types of schemes:

1. The Full-term Doctoral Fellowships are awarded for a period of two years directly by ICSSR.
2. The Short-term Doctoral Fellowships are awarded for a period of six months.
3. Contingency Grant is a one-time consolidated grant for meeting expenses on thesis work.

Centrally Administered Doctoral Fellowships

ICSSR invited applications for ICSSR Centrally-Administered Doctoral Fellowships for the year 2018-19, online for the first time, by placing a Call for applications on its website and in some prominent newspapers on 17 July, 2018. The 'Research Fellowship Division' received a total of 2,712 applications, out of these, 2538 applicants applied for Regular Full-term Fellowships of two years, 122 for Short-term Fellowships of six-months and 52 for one-time Contingency Grant. After careful scrutiny of applications by the Screening Committee, 2,382 eligible applications were evaluated by the Expert Committees. Eventually, 475 Centrally Administered Full-term Fellowships were awarded including 363 to General category candidates, 77 to Scheduled Caste and 35 to Scheduled Tribes.

In addition to this, 63 applicants were selected for Short-term Fellowships and 31 for Contingency Grant. The total committed expenditure on new awards was ₹2727.27 lakhs. The list of ICSSR Doctoral Fellowships awardees under all four schemes may be seen at Appendix-4.

During the year 2018-19, 318 Ph.D. theses were submitted by the ICSSR Doctoral Fellowships awardees, their list may be seen at Appendix 4.

Institutional Doctoral Fellowships

In the year 2018-19, 30 Institutional Doctoral Fellowships were awarded through Nine ICSSR Research Institutes in the disciplines /areas in which the institutes are said to have specialized faculty. The total expenditure involved was ₹156.00 Lakhs. The detailed distribution of 30 Institutional Fellowships awarded is given in Table 2.6.

The year-wise details of Doctoral Fellowships (Centrally Administered and Institutional) awarded, withdrawals and theses submitted over these years may be seen in the Table 2.7.

Thus, in all, ICSSR awarded a total of 505 Full-term Doctoral Fellowships in the year 2018-19.

National and International Seminars / Conferences

Sponsoring/funding Seminars/Conferences in India is one of the major activities of ICSSR to promote deliberation on issues of concern in social science research. They provide opportunities to researchers and academicians to exchange views and researches, discuss important research questions on policy relevant issues, and generate academic research reports on important social problems. While the Council itself organises a few seminars, most of its support is in the form of partial financial assistance to academic institutions for organising national and international seminars in various social science disciplines.

During the financial year 2018-19, ICSSR received over 598 proposals for organizing international/national seminars/conferences from all across India out of which 326 proposals were selected for funding by the Expert Committee. This included 91 international and 235 national seminar proposals involving a total expenditure of ₹474.05 lakh. The list of seminars approved may be seen at Appendix-5.

Further year-wise details about the seminars funded by the ICSSR since its inception may be seen in Table No. 2.8.

Training and Capacity Building Programme

A basic requirement for high quality research in social science is the training in the science and art of doing research. While the philosophical basis of social science research is common to all disciplines of social science, different subjects have evolved their own theoretical frameworks and discipline specific techniques of research. However, scholars engaging themselves in interdisciplinary or multi-disciplinary research need to familiarize themselves with the research methodologies of the disciplines other than their own in which they are trained. Moreover, from the stage of identification of research problem to methodology and finally reporting and analysis of findings, and also publication of these findings, there are several aspects in which a good researcher has to refine one's skills. Therefore, the ICSSR supports and sponsors Research Methodology and Capacity Building Programmes in universities and research institutes.

The ICSSR provides grant to social science faculties for organizing Research Methodology Course(s) and Capacity Building Programme for young researchers and faculties in various social science disciplines, which may include multi-disciplinary perspectives and training. The programme is divided into the following two categories:

(A) Research Methodology Course (RMC)

The aim of the course is to enhance the methodological and writing skills of the PDF/Ph.D./M.Phil. scholars and develop their potential as future faculties/social science researchers.

(B) Capacity Building Programme (CBP)

The aim of this programme is to give an exposure to the young Assistant Professors in social science disciplines to the latest advances in their subjects, and also to improve their capacity in methodological understanding as well as writing skills.

Since 1971, when the programme was first conceptualised, 962 Research Methodology Courses, and Capacity Building Programmes have been funded by the ICSSR. During the year under report, a total of 186 proposals for both Research Methodology Course and Capacity Building Programme were received and placed before the Expert Committees for evaluation. The Committees approved 72 proposals including 47 under Research Methodology Course (9 Scheduled Caste and 7 Scheduled Tribe) and 25 under Capacity Building Programme (7 Schedule Caste and 2 Schedule Tribe) with a total expenditure of ₹ 317.15 lakhs.

The details about RMC and CBP courses organised/funded by the ICSSR is given in Table 2.9.

Research Survey and Publications

Publication & Research Survey Programme is another major activity of the ICSSR through which it disseminates important research outputs produced both within and outside the Council. Under its publication scheme, the Council used to publish two research journals 'The Indian Social Science Review' and 'ICSSR Journals of Abstracts and Reviews' (These were discontinued in 2009, but the Council has decided to re-start publishing the journals) to bring out outstanding research papers resulting from its own supported research and research related activities. Besides, the Council also provides grants to (a) Indian nationals for publication of their Doctoral Theses, Project/Fellowship Reports, Monographs and Seminar/Workshop proceedings in the field of social science and (b) professional associations/organisations of social scientists including universities, colleges and research institutes for publication/ running of their research journal(s). It also provides ad-hoc grants to professional associations/organisations of social scientists for their maintenance and developmental activities.

So far, the ICSSR has published 1828 books, supported 975 associations/ organisations for publication of their research journals and 367 associations/ organisations for their development. During the year 2018-19, 12 doctoral theses and research reports were published with ICSSR grant with a total expenditure of ₹ 13.88 lakh. Similarly, 32 professional organizations/associations of social scientists received ICSSR grant of ₹ 34.40 lakh for publication of their journals and five for their infrastructural development with an amount of ₹ 10.00 lakh.

The details of published books and grants given to professional associations/ organisations for publication of their research journals and for their development is given at Appendix 7 and Table 2.10

Moreover, the Council, since inception, has undertaken the task of surveying research developments in chosen disciplines of social science through its programme of surveys of research. The core objective of the surveys is to have a comprehensive overview of research undertaken during a specified period, involving stock-taking of what has been achieved in the discipline in terms of theory, methodology, empirical evidence and gaps which need to be prioritised for future agenda. So far, the ICSSR has published around 70 Volumes of Research Surveys and 60 other publications.

The Council has undertaken the Sixth Round of ICSSR Research Survey in the disciplines of Psychology, Political Science, Geography, Sociology & Social Anthropology and Economics covering the period 2003-2009. The ICSSR has already published Research Survey Reports in respect of Pol. Science, Economics, Geography, Sociology and Social Anthropology and Research Survey Report pertaining to 'Psychology' is likely to be published in June 2019 by M/s Oxford University Press (OUP), New Delhi.

International Travel Grant for Paper Presentation/ Data Collection Abroad

The aim of this programme is to assist social science scholars to make substantial contributions to important international seminars/conferences. The programme thus promotes academic links amongst the social scientists in India and abroad, provides opportunity to develop new insights and enlarges their research perspectives and contributes to the advancement and dissemination of knowledge in social science subjects.

In pursuance of its policy to promote closer contacts between India and overseas social scientists, the ICSSR has developed two programmes. Under the first, financial assistance is provided to Indian scholars, who have been invited to contribute and present papers at international conferences abroad. In its second programme, ICSSR provides financial assistance to scholars who intend to visit abroad for the purposes of data collection or consulting archival material in connection with their research work.

ICSSR Research Institutes

The ICSSR has been supporting Research Institutes which are outside the scope of the University Grants Commission (UGC) and has been providing them grant for research activities, establishment, maintenance and infrastructure. ICSSR provides maintenance and development grant to 24 Research Institutes. The grant to Research Institutes has been one of the major programmes of the Council in enlarging the base of social science knowledge, improving the quality of research, and promoting an inter-disciplinary perspective. These Institutes constitute an important mechanism for implementing the Council's policy of dispersal of research talents and building up of research capabilities in the different regions of the country, particularly in the areas where social science research is not yet well developed.

The Research Institutes have established close links with the scholars in the region as well as elsewhere through various activities such as seminars, workshops, training and consultancy programmes. Some of the institutes are closely associated with national and state level planning and development agencies, and have thereby strengthened the links between research and policy making.

Each Institute determines its own direction of research, which includes a wide spectrum of subjects related to agricultural and rural development, industrial structure and growth, income distribution and poverty, employment and wages, inter-regional differences in levels of development, education, health, nutrition, problems of weaker sections of society including women, energy, technology, ecology and environment, and social, cultural and institutional aspects of development. journals/edited books. During the year, three scholars were pursuing their Ph.D. and three seminars /conferences were organized by the Institute.

The major activities of the above mentioned Research Institutes during 2018-19 are given at Appendix-11.

Impactful Policy Research in Social Science (IMPRESS) Scheme

Every nation, at all points of time, aspires to witness positive developments in all dimensions of its life which include economic, social, political, cultural, educational and soon. These aspirations have driven mankind to assess the needs of the society and innovate accordingly. The very process of evolution suggests how mankind has faced problems and challenges at every stage of development and attempted to overcome these difficulties and adversities through creativity, innovativeness and advancement of new techniques and tools. Thus, the task of nation-building and progress of society are ever continuing.

Many scientists and researchers believe that nation building is an outcome of developments in science & technology or in capital formation. This view gained prominence in almost all major countries of the world which has led to larger parts of their societies failing to equate the swiftness of developments in science & technology. Hence, a number of issues pertaining to development gaps, imbalances, poverty, malnutrition, exploitation of various kinds, inequality, tension, stress, violence, discrimination, security etc. have emerged. These issues have acted and continue to act as impediments to the very process of potential development and well-being. So, every society needs thorough study of such problems, their causal factors, inter-related issues, acceptable explanations and workable way outs in demanding situations.

The Scenario of Social Science Research

Many commissions and committees of the government as well as thinkers have felt that there is an evident degree of disparity between thrust on science & technology and social development. Several committees have strongly recommended to encourage and promote social science research (SSR) and its greater participation in public policy. India's first Higher Education Commission, 1950 (Radhakrishnan Commission) highlighted the disparity between natural and social science, and argued in favour of assigning higher importance and greater allocation for social science research. Indian Education Commission (1964-66), popularly known as 'Kothari Commission', emphasised the need for development of scientific approach in social science research and also urged for the knowledge creation in these areas through training and capacity building programmes. The Commission also recommended for greater allocation of resources for SSR. Though, India's first Education Policy i.e. 'National Policy of Education (NPE), 1968' implicitly held Social Science as Policy Science, yet it insisted on science education and research for national development. However, the Policy recommended that the 'Centres of Advanced Study' should be established or strengthened for the upliftment of social scientific research. The 'National Policy of Education, 1986' and 'Programme of Action, 1992' insisted to minimise the gap between researchers and policy makers and to maintain focus on policy-driven research, especially the SSR. The Policy also endorsed the view that inter-disciplinary and trans-disciplinary researches generate greater utility than purely unidisciplinary researches. There is no doubt that research domains have widened in both, science and technology researches as well as in social science researches. There is an increasing appreciation of rising degree of complementarity in researches in both the spheres as the two have to be deeply interconnected in order to maximize the benefits from such explorations.

Science and technology research, which affirms to improve the quality of life, needs to be completely connected with the society as any deficiency in expected degree of its association with the society is bound to result in concentration of benefits among very few. Besides that there is a fair degree of realization that social science research and social scientists need to be closely connected to the policy making at all levels, including that in science and technology because the idea is to translate researches into impactful policy documents and make research findings bring about still more improvement in the quality of life. It can happen only when research problems emanate from the society & its problems, and researchers endeavour to provide some pragmatic solution to those problems. The linking of social science research with that of science & technology research is bound to provide a very intense insight even to the scientists and help them make their researches or innovations more easily acceptable by the society. It would also inspire potential social scientists to contribute more vigorously and enthusiastically in policy making. There is no doubt that social science researches are extremely important for policy conception, implementation and final delivery as every policy ultimately is to be appreciated and accepted by the society for attempting to serve it much better. Identification of critical issues also assists the policy makers to formulate better and more acceptable policies, schemes and programmes. In this connection, the role of social science ecosystem is also very crucial. There is no refutation of the fact that no public policy can be very successfully adopted without interacting with the society, knowing it and its aspirations, and also acquainting it with significant and new developments.

In Scopus database, India is ranked at 11th position for its social science publications and its share in global publications is nearly 2.15% whereas in Science & Technology publications, India is ranked at 3rd place and its share is around 8%. The share of expenditure on social science research is 0.025 per cent of the total budget of the central government while it is 0.86 per cent for the researches in science and the expenditure on SSR is less than 3 per cent of the expenditure on science researches. In order to tap its potentials optimally, social science research required a big push for which IMPRESS makes a sincere attempt in the right direction.

IMPRESS (Impactful Policy Research in Social Science)

Impactful Policy Research in Social Science (IMPRESS) is an idea of its own kind that aims to provide a research based roadmap to address policy challenges pertaining to society and so, the social science expands. The research based inputs are the crucial requirements in the process of policy making as a policy should evolve from the society and its concerns and the policy is ultimately expected to respond to societal aspirations. It has been pointed out that the gaps between policy makers and the society need to be bridged. Social science researchers can be very helpful in identification of the gaps between the society and policy makers and they may attempt to provide vital inputs or evidences about the perception, appreciation and outreach of the policies among people. Besides, there may be crucial areas where policy makers require timely inputs, evidence, feedback and participation in order to make policy considerably effective. So, IMPRESS is dedicated to address the issue of bridging the gap between policy making & implementing and the society by generating or encouraging vital inputs from researches in important social science domains so as to assist in having maximum impact on governance and society.

The domain and sub-domain areas need to be identified in a way that encompasses subjects that have been in public policy debate due to new developments, earnest concerns, emerging issues and critical deficiencies. Based on these aspects, the following Eleven (11) important broad domain areas have been identified after a fair extent of consultation:

- a. State and Democracy
- b. Urban Transformation
- c. Media Culture and Society
- d. Employment Skills and Rural Transformation
- e. Governance, Innovation and Public Policy
- f. Growth, Macro-trade and Economic Policy
- g. Agriculture and Rural Development
- h. Health and Environment
- i. Science and Education
- j. Social Media and Technology
- k. Politics, Law and Economics

The proposal of Impactful Policy Research in Social Sciences named scheme IMPRESS was approved by Government of India in August 2018 with a total budget of ₹ 414 Crore spread over three financial years for its implementation starting from October 2018. ICSSR being a highly reputed social science research Council under the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Department of Higher Education, GoI, New Delhi was entrusted with the responsibility of implementing the scheme. ICSSR would also contribute a small part towards project funding from its own allocation for projects.

The scheme has a target to award a minimum of 1500 research projects and 200 seminars/conferences/ workshops. Regular faculty from institutes of national importance, central and state universities, private universities/institutes having UGC 12(B) status, and ICSSR research institutes can apply for research programme or projects and seminars under IMPRESS. The proposals are to be invited in a competitive mode through four open calls at an interval of five to six months and the first call was launched in October 2018. The evaluation process is quite transparent as each proposal is to be blind peer reviewed by three experts who are assigned proposals through a computer driven system. Based on the recommendations of the experts and merit, the proposals are shortlisted for presentation & interaction before another Expert Committee which makes its observations/recommendations for the consideration of the Steering Committee. The Steering Committee takes the final decision in the light of merit, observations and recommendations of the Expert Committee/s.

The First Call of IMPRESS

The online portal of IMPRESS was formally launched by the then Hon'ble Minister of Human Resource Development, Shri Prakash Javadekar Ji on 25th October, 2018.

Since IMPRESS intends to support social science scholars, academicians and policy makers for greater impact of research and policy, and for that, it aims to connect social science researches, their assessment of ongoing policies and suggestions with policy makers. The scheme has more than 100 sub-domain areas within the above mentioned broad 11 domains. Some of these sub-domains include India as a Welfare State, Nature of Federalism in India, Security & Defence Policy, India's Soft Power Policy, Diaspora, Indian Portrayal, Regional Cooperation, Urbanisation, Cities and Sustainability, Urban/City Governance, Urban Transportation, Women Empowerment and its Status, Inclusion and Development of Scheduled Castes & Tribes, Skill and Employability, Rural Transformation, Infrastructure and Transportation, Technology for Rural Transformation, E-Governance and Smart Governance, Innovation, Knowledge and Governance, Technology and Governance, Growth, Inclusiveness, Poverty and Inequality, Ease of Doing Business, Make in India Initiative, Financial Inclusion, Revitalisation of Manufacturing, Informal Sector Issues, Agrarian Distress and related Issues, Food and Nutrition Security, State Level Developments, Environmental Problems and Climate Change, Water Problem, Swachh Bharat Initiative, Universal Health, Disaster and Its Management, Science & Society, Access, Equity and Quality in Higher Education, Digital Learning, Technology and Social Media, Social Media - Networks, Ethics, Accountability and Big Data Issues, Bureaucracy & Administrative Reforms, Judicial Activism, Rape Survivors and Justice System etc.

Under the First Call of IMPRESS scheme, 2484 proposals (ever largest number for SSR project applications against a call) were received till 30th November 2018, the last date for receiving the proposals. The scheme had a pan India outreach as faculties/scholars from 32 states and union territories had applied (brief detail of state-wise participation has been provided at Appendix 12).

In the first phase of First Call, the proposals recommended under blind peer review up to middle of February, 2019 were invited for presentation and interaction. The Project Directors of the shortlisted proposals were given an option of appearing in-person or through skype. Finally, in respect of Call-I up to middle of February 2019, 269 projects and 70 proposals for seminar were selected for award by the 'Steering Committee'. Detailed list of awardees of Research Project (269) and Seminars (70) has been provided at Appendix - 12. The domain-wise position of selected project proposals (269) and seminars (70) up to this stage is as follows (Table 3.1).

Accounts

Separate Audit Report of the Comptroller & Auditor General of India on the Accounts of the Indian Council of Social Science Research, New Delhi for the Year Ended 31 March 2019

We have audited the attached Balance Sheet of the Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR) as at 31 March 2019, the Income & Expenditure Account and Receipts & Payments Account for the year ended on that date under Section 20 (l) of the Comptroller & Auditor General's (Duties, Powers & Conditions of Service) Act, 1971. The audit has been entrusted for the period up to 2018-19. These financial statements include the accounts of Six Regional Centres of the ICSSR. Out of these, one Regional Centre was audited and comment included in the report. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Council's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

2. This Separate Audit Report contains the comments of the Comptroller and Auditor General of India (CAG) on the accounting treatment only with regard to classification, conformity with the best accounting practices, accounting standards and disclosure norms, etc. Audit observations on financial transactions with regard to compliance with the Law, Rules & Regulations (Propriety and Regularity) and efficiency-cum-performance aspects, etc., if any, are reported through Inspection Reports/CAG's Audit Reports separately.

3. We have conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in India. These standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatements. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidences supporting the amounts and disclosure in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of financial statements. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

4. Based on our audit, we report that:

i We have obtained all the information and explanations, subject to the observation in the report, which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purpose of our audit;

ii The Balance Sheet, Income & Expenditure Account and Receipts & Payments Account dealt with by this report have been drawn up in the format prescribed by the Government of India, Ministry of Human Resource Development subject to the observations in the report;

iii In our opinion, proper books of accounts and other relevant records, except as stated in the report, have been maintained by the ICSSR in so far as it appears from our examination of such books.

iv We further report that:

A. Balance Sheet

A.1 Assets

A.1.1 Loans Advances & Deposits (Schedule 8) - Rs. 58.57 lakh

The above does not includes the electricity charges of Rs. 19.28 lakh recoverable from the contractor running the Chintan Guest House of ICSSR. This has resulted in understatement of Loans, Advances & Deposits by Rs. 19.28 lakh.

B. Significant Accounting Policies and Notes on Accounts

Accounting Policy No. 10 regarding accountal of liability towards gratuity payable on death/ retirement of employees and leave encashment benefit to employees on actual basis, is in contravention of the Format of Accounts prescribed by MHRD and Accounting Standard 15. This is being pointed out since 2014-15 but remedial action has not been taken.

C. Grants-in-Aid: The details of grant in aid are as under:

					Rs. in Crore
Opening balance	Grant received	Refund received from ROs	Total Grant	Grant utilised	Balance
32.88	124.58	2.80	160.26	152.44	7.82

However while reworking of unutilised grant-in-aid as on 1 April 2018 due to consolidation of the Annual Accounts of the ICSSR Headquarter with its Regional Centers in compliance with audit observation on the previous year Accounts, the investment of Rs. 18 lakh with the Regional Centre Kolkata as on 31 March 2018 has not been considered. This has resulted in understatement of opening balance of grant-in-aid as on 1 April 2018 with consequent understatement of unutilised grant-in-aid as on 31 March 2019 by Rs. 18 lakh

Further Interest earned on unutilised grant were not considered while calculating the balance of the grant.

D. Management Letter:

Deficiencies which have not been included in the Audit Report have been brought to the notice of the Member Secretary, ICSSR, through a management letter issued separately for remedial/ corrective action.

v. Subject to our observations in the preceding paragraphs, we report that the Balance Sheet, Income & Expenditure Account and Receipts & Payments Account dealt with by this report are in agreement with the books of accounts.

vi. In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanation given to us, the said financial statements, read together with the Accounting Policies and Notes on Accounts, and other matters mentioned in Annexure to this Audit Report, give a true and fair view in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in India:

a. In so far as they relate to the Balance Sheet of the state of affairs of the Indian Council of Social Science Research as at 31" March 2019; and
