PROGRAMMES

Overview

It is widely regarded that social science research enhances our understanding of the society and its functioning, as it opens up debate and gives us a say in shaping our collective future. This, in turn, provides policy inputs for socio-economic development and generates ideas and information that can be used in policy framing, teaching and research. Thus, social science research renders vital services to society and to the country.

India has a long and rich tradition of commissioning research in social science teaching. In ancient times, Takshashila, Nalanda, Vikramashila, Vallabhi, Pushpagiri and Somapura universities flourished as global centres of learning in different parts of India. The subjects taught in these universities included Vedas, Vedanta, Ayurveda, Medicine and Surgery, Jurisprudence, Mathematics, Astronomy, Physics, Metallurgy, Civil Engineering, Architecture, Philosophy, Grammar, Agriculture, Economics, Commerce, Politics, Statecraft, Military Education, Literature and Craft etc. These universities set very high standards of teaching, learning and research for scholars from across the world. This system of Indian education produced scholars of great stature such as Aryabhata, Bhaskaracharya, Amarsimha, Chandrabardai, Banbhatta, Dandin, Jivaka Komarabhacca, Mahaviracharya, Charaka, Susruta, Baudhayan, Chanakya, Brahmagupta, Panini, Patanjali, Nagarjuna, Pingala, Gargi, Kanad, Varahamihira, Thiruvalluvar and so on.

In the modern era, under colonial auspices, social science teaching and research in the country, however, was transformed with the introduction of the modern university system in the second half of the 19th century, as exemplified by the coming into existence of the Senate of Serampore University (1829), the University of Mumbai (1857), University of Madras (1857), University of Calcutta (1857) and Allahabad University (1875). This was the time when the Indian Oriental Renaissance was confronted with the onslaught of the West's Christian missionaries and colonial discourse, and subsequently was demoted due to hegemonic eurocentric perspectives. The real paradigm breakthrough for social science research came only after Independence with the rapid expansion of the higher education system as a part of the planned socio-economic development. As the country's development process threw up numerous and diverse challenges that required extensive research and analysis, the Government of India established a Committee for Social Science Research under the Chairmanship of Professor V.K.R.V. Rao in 1965 to review the social science research scenario in the country and make recommendations to accelerate its progress. This led to the establishment of the Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR) in 1969 to encourage, promote and fund social science research in the country. In due course of our sociological learning curve, we identified issues which are crucial for the future growth and development of social science research in India. It is urgently required to correct distorted perspectives in social science research, engendered by an over-reliance on Western conceptual frameworks. To reinvigorate this corrective exercise, teaching in the mother tongue by using local materials, conducting research by insiders, as well redefining research priorities and reorienting theoretical and methodological framework must be emphasized.

The need of the hour is to shift from merely documenting the 'exceptionalism' of India to engaging in pluralised sociologies of India so as to be able to represent a larger variety of issues, generate new theories and perspectives in order to represent the multiple voices of varied people of India while engaging in international comparison to generate more broadly applicable conceptual insights. Presently, social scientists are endeavouring to discard Western methodology, and in its place Indic phenomena are being perceived with the actual lens of Indian society and culture.

The ICSSR is an autonomous body under the Ministry of Education, Government of India and a premier organisation with 24 Research Institutes (grant-in-aid), five Recognised Research Institutes and six Regional Centres located in different parts of the country.

The ICSSR's aims and objectives, as spelt out in its Memorandum of Association (MoA), are the following:

- To review and survey the progress of Social Science Research and advise the Government on policy issues;
- To fund and promote Social Science Research in Universities/Colleges/Research Institutes;
- To award Doctoral, Post-Doctoral, Senior and National Fellowships to researchers and faculties;
- To award Minor, Major and Collaborative Research Projects to researchers and faculties;
- To fund National and International Seminars and Conferences to disseminate social science research findings;
- To support Training and Capacity Building Programmes for young researchers and faculties;
- To provide International Travel and Data Collection Grants to scholars and faculties;
- To encourage International Collaboration in social science research with well recognized foreign research funding agencies;
- To fund the publication of journals and books in social science research and also strengthen professional social science associations/ organizations;
- To provide library, documentation, data and online services for social science research; and
- To indicate periodic themes in neglected and new critical areas of research.

During the last 54 years since its establishment, the ICSSR has been actively promoting and funding social science research in the country. It provides regular maintenance and development grants to its Research Institutes (on matching grant basis) to study National and Regional research issues from interdisciplinary perspectives. It also fully supports its six Regional Centres which represent the Council within their respective regions with the aim of disseminating the programmes and schemes of the ICSSR. Under the International Collaboration Programme, the ICSSR has signed bilateral collaborative agreements with 13 countries including the United Kingdom, Japan, South Africa, Germany, South Korea, Switzerland, Sri Lanka, Vietnam, Philippines, Netherlands, Sweden, Taiwan, Bosnia & Herzegovina, as well as Cultural Exchange Programmes with three countries, namely, France, China and Thailand, in order to engage in activities such as the exchange of scholars, joint seminars, research projects, publications, exchange of books and periodicals. The ICSSR also participates in the activities of the international social science organisations like International Science Council (ISC), Science Council of Asia (SCA) and UNESCO etc. The Council serves as the nodal agency for participating in the activities of the UNESCO's MOST (Management of Social Transformation) programme and its implementation.

Since its inception, the ICSSR has granted 8,350 Major, Minor and Collaborative Research Projects (Including IMPRESS), awarded 7,525 full-term Doctoral Fellowships, 3,002 Post-Doctoral Fellowships, 854 Senior Fellowships and 174 National Fellowships. It has sponsored 4,882 National and 1,235 International seminars/conferences, funded 2,241 scholars for attending seminars abroad as well as 478 scholars for data collection abroad. The ICSSR has sponsored 1,167 Research Methodology Courses and Training & Capacity Building Programmes for young faculty and researchers, provided financial assistance to 1,887 scholars for publication of their Doctoral Theses/ Projects/ Fellowship Reports/ Conference Proceedings, and financially supported 1,107 social science journals, including 412 professional associations involved in social science research activities. It has also conducted six Rounds of Surveys on the current status of research in crucial social science disciplines, namely, Economics, Political Science, Sociology and Social Anthropology, Geography and Psychology, in the country. These surveys have also been published by the ICSSR in collaboration with reputed publishers like Sage, Pearson and Oxford University Press (OUP) etc. The ICSSR used to publish a prestigious social science research journal, namely 'The Indian Social Science Review' which was discontinued in 2011. Now, we have restarted the journal; research papers and articles have been reviewed by eminent experts, and the shortlisted articles will be published. Apart from this, the ICSSR provides research services such as library, documentation, data and e-resources to several thousand social science scholars and faculties across the country through its National Social Science Documentation Centre (NASSDOC).

The ICSSR has been offering its research-based advice, whenever needed, to the Government of India on policy relevant issues; in particular, it has contributed in the Newton-Vivekanand Programme with the U.K. It has also carried out studies for various Ministries of the Government of India, including the Ministry of Social Justice & Empowerment, Ministry of Minority Affairs, Ministry of Home Affairs and the Ministry of Science and Technology. In addition, there is a considerable presence of ICSSR studies and references in various policy documents and reports of the Ministries and the erstwhile Planning Commission. Moreover, the Member Secretary and Council members regularly participate and contribute to the deliberations of other government organisations involved in policy making or implementation such as the University Grants Commission, Indian Statistical Institute, Council of Scientific and Industrial Research (CSIR), Indian Council of World Affairs, Indian Institute of Advanced Study, NITI Aayog, ICPR, ICHR etc. Many officers of the ICSSR have also held presentations on various schemes of the Council.

As the ICSSR has completed 54 years of its existence, it faces significant challenges alongside opportunities while giving direction to social science research in India and actively participating in social science research at a global level. According to a University Grants Commission Report, there are 1,074 Universities in the country

(56 Central Universities, 460 State Universities, 430 Private Universities and 128 Deemed-to-be-Universities). Similarly, as per the data drawn from the International Standard Series Number (ISSN) and Ulrich International Periodical Directory data books, there were 2,131 social science journals published in India during the period 2000-2015.

Moreover, with the introduction of the 'National Institutional Ranking Framework (NIRF)' by the Ministry of Education (previously known as the Ministry of Human Resource Development), Government of India, in 2015, more focus is being laid on the type of research, as the rankings significantly depend on the research orientation and related output of the institutes or universities. Consequently, policy makers are concerned with adopting newer strategies and 'best global practices' for enhancing the research quality and culture, with the ulterior aim of improving the global rankings of Indian institutes and universities. This is also reflected in the notable increase of 'Institutes of National Importance', a distinction conferred on premier public higher education institutions in India by an Act of the Indian Parliament. Thus, all institutions entrusted with the task of promoting and supporting research, such as the ICSSR, face this key challenge of promoting advanced, novel and cutting-edge research to help institutes and universities improve their national and global rankings and also build a robust research culture in the country. Nonetheless, there exist immense opportunities that place the ICSSR in an advantageous position to play a leading role in social science research and policy, at the national as well as international levels.

The 21st century is widely said to belong to Asia, where India, Japan and China are perceived as major actors. India and China have already been emerging at a rapid growth rate in the last three decades. The end of the Cold War and the growing impact of globalisation also require India to redefine its position and role at the regional and global levels. Ever since economic liberalisation of the 1990s, India's global presence has been steadily rising. India has been one of the fastest growing economies for more than three decades; furthermore, it is the world's fifth largest economy after the United States, China, Japan and Germany

(in nominal GDP terms) and the third-largest by Purchasing Power Parity (PPP) (as per IMF & World Bank). In the next few years, it is projected to be among the top three economies of the world. Given this scenario, there are many issues that constitute common global research concerns, and at the same time, there are a number of national and policy specific research concerns that individual countries are keen to examine with a view to understanding the existing problems and finding their possible solutions. Rising population, national security, development patterns, water resources, climate change, sustainability, migration, urban infrastructure, inclusiveness, etc. are some of India's specific concerns. Often, given that nations converge in terms of their common problems, the same can be said for their research concerns.

India's aspiration to become one of the global leaders in knowledge creation rests on its research capabilities and infrastructure. The research ultimately must serve society and should contribute towards policy formulation and its objective assessment. At the same time, modern research is transcending the tight disciplinary compartments and moving towards inter- and multi-disciplinarity, where many disciplines combine their intellectual and infrastructural resources to achieve the common objective for the greater benefit of society at large. In this respect, the ICSSR's role acquires a greater significance as we have been promoting such inter- or multidisciplinary research. Even developments in science and technology need to adopt a social science perspective to achieve greater acceptability of new developments, as well as to prepare society to accept and adapt to those developments. Fortunately, all these aspects of robust research and innovation have been well captured by the 'National Education Policy, 2020' which underlines that "Knowledge creation and research are well known to be centrally critical to growing and sustaining a large and vibrant economy, uplifting society and continuously inspiring a nation to achieve even greater heights. [...] A robust ecosystem of research is perhaps more important than ever with the rapid changes occurring in the world today [...]."

India is viewed as a major stakeholder in the global political, economic and technological environment, and, therefore, its research output is expected to have a larger share in global quality research. New research is leading to many paradigm shifts which are challenging colonial concepts and theories. There is also a greater emphasis on analysing India's challenges and problems based on our own socio-political and economic conditions, instead of viewing them through a western conceptual and empirical prism. Such research is better placed to solve various local or community and country-specific problems and suggest innovative solutions and alternatives.

In terms of publication in Social Science Research, India ranks among the top five countries. The ICSSR ranks among India's top institutions which specialise in Social Science Research. Major thrust areas of research include Climate Change, Health Care Services, Environmental Pollution, Agricultural Land and Profit, Biodiversity and Ecosystems, Globalization and Energy Consumption, Globalization and Climate Change. In 2021, the ICSSR's share of publications in Social Science Research, globally, amounted to 4.41%. Hence, the ICSSR has attained the 5th rank globally in the domain of Social Science Research publications.

The ICSSR intends to intensely promote social science research in India with the support of the Government and other research organisations. India's high growth rate of social science publications at the international level (Scopus Statistics) is a strong indicator of India's present role, as also in the years to come. It is also reflected in the 'Time Higher Education' (THE) Ranking 2023, where Indian universities rank among the top 300 universities, globally. Acutely conscious of its new role, the ICSSR has undertaken some vital steps in this regard. Now, it is focusing on both the quantitative expansion of its programmes and schemes, as well as on producing a quality research output. During the year 2022-23, the ICSSR has provided financial assistance to thousands of scholars, faculties and research organisations to encourage and promote quality social science research in the country, as given in Table 1.1.

The ICSSR Organisational Structure: The ICSSR's highest decision-making body, known as the Council, has 26 members, which includes the ICSSR Chairman and the Member-Secretary, 17 Social Scientists (Non Ex-Officio members), one Co-opted member and 6 Ex-officio members representing the Government of India. The list containing members of the Governing Council is given in Appendix 1.

The Member Secretary is the Chief Executive Officer and heads the ICSSR Secretariat consisting of Directors, Deputy Directors, Assistant Directors and other officials. The ICSSR's officials, apart from their normal official duties, make regular contributions through research papers, articles, articles in edited books, journals, etc., and have also delivered lectures during the reporting year.

The Council has three standing committees, namely the Research Committee (RC), Research Institutes Committee (RIC) and Planning and Administration Committee (PAC). During the financial year 2022-23, the ICSSR has conducted its meetings of the Council, Research Committee, Research Institutes Committee and Planning & Administration Committee to ensure the smooth functioning of different divisions.

This is the 54th Annual Report of the Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR) delineating the Council's activities from 1st April, 2022 to 31st March, 2023.

Research Promotion

Promotion of research in social sciences constitutes the most important activity of the Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR). The ICSSR has been striving to achieve this through its various programmes and schemes such as funding Minor, Major & Collaborative Research Projects of faculties; providing Doctoral, Post-doctoral, Senior and National Fellowships to scholars and faculties; awarding seminar and conference grants to disseminate social science research findings; sponsoring training and capacity building programmes for young researchers and faculties; providing international travel and data collection grants to scholars and faculties; encouraging international collaborations in research with country level funding agencies abroad; funding publication of journals and books and strengthening professional social science associations/organizations through infrastructural grants; providing library, documentation, data and online literature services to Social Science researchers etc.

The ICSSR has identified the following broad disciplines of study, within the domain of social sciences:

- a) Economics
- b) Sociology and Social Anthropology
- c) Political Science/Public Administration
- d) International Studies
- e) Social Geography and Population Studies
- f) Commerce and Management
- g) Social Psychology
- h) Education
- i) Social Linguistics/Socio-Cultural Studies
- j) Law / International Law
- k) National Security & Strategic Studies
- l) Other allied Social Science disciplines such as

Library Science, Social Work, Media Studies, Modern Social History, Health Studies, Gender Studies, Environmental Studies, Diaspora Studies, Area Studies, Sanskrit-Society & Cultural Studies etc. to promote inter-disciplinary and multi-disciplinary research.

Research Projects

Research Projects, both individual and institutional, are important ways to promote social science research in the country. The research projects may belong to any of the social science disciplines or may be multi-disciplinary or interdisciplinary in nature. The specific objectives of the programmes are: (a) to support high quality independent programme of research; (b) to provide opportunities for training of future researchers; (c) to contribute to the development of new theoretical or methodological approaches to research; (d) to maintain and sustain various disciplinary research activities; and (e) to foster and promote collaborative, interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary research activities among researchers in social science.

The ICSSR awards two types of Research Projects to Indian scholars: (a) Major and Minor Research Projects earlier known as Research Projects (Responsive) (b) Research Programmes previously known as Research Projects (Sponsored).

Major and Minor Research Projects

Major and Minor Projects are basically demand-driven. Under this scheme, the ICSSR provides grant to scholars to conduct research on the topics of their choice. The year-wise position of research projects sanctioned since inception and reports received till 31st March 2023 is furnished in Table 2.1.

Research Programmes

Research Programmes are a series of research studies undertaken simultaneously or sequentially on themes of significance and priority in policy and Social Science Research. These studies, identified by the ICSSR from time to time, are expected to be inter-disciplinary or multi-disciplinary or inter-institutional in nature for critical understanding of new social science research issues and develop deeper understanding in terms of theory, methodology, new findings and policy outcomes. However, high impact studies which are extensive in structure but fall within the ambit of a single discipline are also considered.

The scheme of Research Projects (Sponsored) or Research Programme was launched in 2011-12 with All India Report on Educational Status of Scheduled Castes & Scheduled Tribes and De-notified Tribes (DNT) for various states. Year-wise position of research programmes sanctioned since 2011-12, projects cancelled/ withdrawn/ closed and reports received till 31st March 2023 is given in Table 2.2.

During 2022-23, 79 project reports have been received including one for the year of 2011-12. The details of the reports can be referred at Annexure 3.

New Awards

For the current financial year 2022-23, applications (online) were invited for ICSSR Research Projects through an Advertisement at ICSSR website on September 9, 2022 with a deadline of October 9, 2022 which was further extended till October 17, 2022. As on the last date, the Secretariat received 7,159 applications and out of those, 3,018 proposals have been evaluated. The evaluation process was

Research Fellowships

In order to provide research opportunities to young, senior and established social scientists and to engage them in full- time research on important themes of their choice, four categories of fellowships, namely, National fellowship, Senior Fellowship, Post-Doctoral Fellowship and Doctoral Fellowship are offered to scholars who are at various levels in their profession.

National Fellowships

National Fellowships are aimed at providing opportunities to eminent Indian Social Scientists to engage themselves in full-time research that have the potential to contribute to advancement of knowledge in social sciences on important themes of their choice or to write books based on their research. The ICSSR has so far awarded 174 National Fellowships. During the year three final reports were received pertaining to previous years. The relevant details are given in Table 2.3.

Senior Fellowships

Senior Fellowships are awarded to outstanding Indian Social Scientists for conducting full time research on themes and issues of national and social concerns proposed by the applicants. These studies are expected to contribute to theoretical and conceptual advancement in different disciplines, help to generate field work based empirical data and contribute in policy making. The ICSSR has so far awarded 854 Senior Fellowships. During the year, 29 Senior Fellowships were awarded and 27 final reports were received pertaining to previous years. The relevant details are given in Table 2.4.

Post-Doctoral Fellowships

Post-Doctoral Fellowships are awarded to young Indian Social Scientists with a high potential and promise for conducting full time research on specific themes and issues proposed by the applicants. These studies are expected to contribute to theoretical and conceptual advancement in different disciplines, help to generate field work based empirical data and contribute in policy making. The ICSSR has so far awarded 3,002 Post-Doctoral Fellowships. During the year, 185 Post-Doctoral Fellowships were awarded and 185 final reports were received pertaining to previous years. The relevant details are given in Table 2.5.

In order to encourage active participation by scholars, the ICSSR fellows are required to produce at least five/two/three research papers/articles in reputed journals during the course of their fellowship, related to the theme of their research. In the year of 2022-23, 416 research papers have been published by fellows in various research journals. Out of these, 35 research papers were published in Scopus indexed journals, 76 in UGC listed Journal and the remaining research papers are published in the peer reviewed refereed journals of international and national repute.

New Awards

For the current financial year, ICSSR Secretariat issued an Advertisement on the ICSSR website on 28 July 2022. Online applications were invited for Senior and Post- Doctoral Fellowship for the year 2022-23 with a deadline till 27 August 2022. Time was extended till 29 August 2022. On deadline, the Secretariat received 181 applications for Senior Fellowship and 1,269 for Post-Doctoral Fellowship. ICSSR has used rigorous evaluation process involving senior Social Scientists as experts, which included screening, short- listing, critical evaluation and interaction-cum-presentation. After completing the due procedures, 29 Senior and 185 Post-Doctoral Fellowships were awarded. The details of Senior and Post- Doctoral Fellowships sanctioned during the reporting year have been given in Appendix 4.

During the year 2022-23, the total expenditure for National/ Senior/ Post-doctoral Fellowship schemes was ₹ 1,548.43 Lakh (General - ₹ 1,194.54 Lakh, SC - ₹ 259.75 Lakh, ST - ₹ 94.14 Lakh).

Doctoral Fellowships

ICSSR Doctoral Fellowships are awarded to selected registered Ph.D. scholars to pursue and complete their doctoral theses in social science disciplines. The main aim is to provide financial support to scholars to enable them to focus full time on their research work and bring out quality research output in the form of their Ph.D. theses and publications.

ICSSR has been providing Doctoral Fellowships under its 'Centrally-Administered Doctoral Fellowship Schemes' and 'Institutional Doctoral Fellowship Scheme' in accordance with the prescribed guidelines. In case of Centrally-Administered Schemes, the fellowships are awarded and monitored directly by ICSSR and the concerned doctoral fellows are affiliated to a university or college. Under the Institutional Fellowship Scheme, the doctoral fellows are affiliated to and monitored by an ICSSR sponsored / recognized research institute. The Call for the Centrally-Administered Doctoral Fellowships is given by ICSSR and the fellowships are awarded after screening and evaluation by Expert Committees. The invites for Institutional Doctoral Fellowships are given by the respective research institutes and after preliminary scrutiny, the short-listed applications are sent to ICSSR for evaluation by the experts and final awards. Institutional Doctoral Fellowships are essentially for a tenure of two years or till the submission of thesis at the university, whichever is earlier.

Within ICSSR's Centrally-Administered Doctoral Fellowship Programme, there are the following three types of schemes:

1. The Full-Term Doctoral Fellowship is awarded for a period of two years or till the thesis submission at the university, whichever is earlier;
2. The Short-Term Doctoral Fellowship is awarded for six months period to support scholars who are at final stages of their doctoral work; and
3. Contingency Grant is a consolidated grant for meeting the expenses on thesis work and are provided to scholars who have not received any contingency grant.

Doctoral Fellowships Awards, 2022-23

ICSSR had invited online applications for its three schemes of Centrally-Administered Doctoral Fellowships for the year 2022-23 by placing a Call of Applications on its website on 9th June 2022. Simultaneously, the institutes were asked to initiate the process of inviting applications. In response to this, 2,418 applications were received, 2,314 were logged-in online for the Centrally Administered Fellowships schemes and 104 applications were received from 15 ICSSR institutes. Eventually, 2,244 applicants qualified for evaluation of research proposals by the Expert Committee(s) (2,038 for Centrally-Administered Full-Term fellowship, 99 for Short-Term fellowship, 13 for Contingency Grant and 94 for Institutional fellowship). Expert Committee(s) of Forty members was constituted to undertake assessment of the 2,244 research proposals. Subsequently, ICSSR provisionally awarded 492 Full-Term Doctoral Fellowships, of which 461 were awarded under Centrally-Administered and 31 under the Institutional Doctoral Fellowships schemes. Out of the 461 Centrally-Administered awardees, 357 belonged to General, 69 to SC and 35 to ST categories.

The research institute-wise details of the 104 applications received for Institutional Doctoral Fellowships from 15 research institutes and 31 fellowships awarded is given in Table 2.6:

National and International Seminars/ Conferences

Sponsoring/funding Seminars/Conferences in India is one of the major activities of ICSSR to promote deliberations on issues of high importance in social science research. They provide opportunities to researchers and academicians to exchange views and research findings, discuss important research questions on policy relevant issues and generate academic research reports on important social problems. Although, the Council itself organises a few seminars, most of its support is in the form of partial financial assistance to academic institutions for organising national and international seminars or conferences.

During the financial year 2022-23, ICSSR received over 557 proposals for organizing National/ International Seminars/Conferences from all across India, out of which 317 proposals were selected for funding by the Expert Committee. This included 73 International and 244 National Seminar proposals involving a total expenditure (including AKAM) of ₹ 916.15 lakh. The list of seminars approved may be seen at Appendix 5. Further year-wise details about the seminars funded by the ICSSR since its inception may be seen in Table No. 2.8.

Janajatiya Gaurav Diwas

The Government of India has declared 15th November (Birth Anniversary of Bhagwan Birsa Munda) as “Janajatiya Gaurav Diwas”. Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR) has organized “Janajatiya Gaurav Diwas” on 15th November 2022 at 4.00 p.m. in the ICSSR Conference Hall, New Delhi. The Chief Guest of the event was Shri Harsh Chouhan, Chairman, National Commission for Scheduled Tribes, New Delhi. He delivered a talk on this occasion highlighting the ‘Contribution of Janajati Heroes in Freedom Struggle’. The participants were from Delhi based Research Institutes ICSSR Council Members and also research scholars and faculties of different universities.

Training and Capacity Building Programme

The basic requirement for a high-quality research in Social Science is the training in the science and art of doing research. While the philosophical basis of social science research is common to all disciplines of social sciences, different subjects have evolved their own theoretical frameworks and discipline specific techniques of research. However, scholars engaging themselves in interdisciplinary or multi-disciplinary research need to familiarize themselves with the research methodologies applied in disciplines other than their own in which they are trained. Moreover, from the stage of identification of research problem to methodology and finally, reporting and analysis of findings and also publication of these findings, there are several aspects in which a good researcher has to refine his/her skills. Therefore, the ICSSR supports and sponsors Research Methodology and Capacity Building Programmes in Universities and Research Institutes.

The ICSSR provides grants to the social science faculties for organizing ‘Research Methodology and Capacity Building Programmes’ for young researchers and faculties in various social science disciplines, which may include training in multi-disciplinary areas and research tools. The programme is divided into the following two categories:

(A) Research Methodology Course (RMC)

The aim of the course is to enhance the methodological and writing skills of the PDF/

Ph.D./M.Phil. scholars and develop their potentials as future faculties or social science researchers.

(B) Capacity Building Programme (CBP)

The objective of this programme is to expose the young faculties, mainly Assistant Professors, in social science disciplines to the latest advances in their subjects and also to improve their capacity in understanding of methodology and writing skills.

Since 1971, when the programme was first conceptualised and till 2022-23, 1,167 Research Methodology and Capacity Building Programmes have been funded by the ICSSR. During the year under report, a total of 110 proposals for both Research Methodology Course and Capacity Building Programme (RMC-56 and CBP-54) were received and placed before the Expert Committees for evaluation.

The Committees approved 68 proposals (32 under Research Methodology Course and 36 under Capacity Building) with a total expenditure of ₹ 338.35 lakh. The lists of Research Methodology Course and Capacity Building Courses approved in the year may be seen at Appendix - 6.

The details about RMC and CBP courses organised/funded by the ICSSR is given in Table 2.9.

Future Perspectives

Short-term Training Course to impart highly focused training to young scholars in research writing, data processing and computer applications for lesser number of days involving reduced financial support is being introduced apart from the usual ten-day RMC and two weeks CBP.

Research Survey and Publications

Research Survey and Publication Programme is another major activity of the ICSSR through which it disseminates important research outputs produced both within and outside the Council. Under its publication programme, the Council provides grants to (a) Indian nationals for publication of their Doctoral Theses, Project/Fellowship Reports, Monographs and Seminar/Workshop Papers in the areas of social sciences

Moreover, since its inception, the Council has undertaken the task of surveying research developments in chosen disciplines of social science through its programme of 'Surveys of Research'. The core objective of the surveys is to have a comprehensive overview of research undertaken during a specified period, involving stock-taking of what has been achieved in a particular social science discipline or area in terms of theory, methodology, empirical evidence and the gaps which need to be prioritized for future researches. So far, the ICSSR has published around 70 Volumes of Research Surveys and 60 other publications.

The Council has completed the Sixth Round of ICSSR Research Survey in the disciplines of Psychology, Political Science, Geography, Sociology & Social Anthropology and Economics covering the period 2003-2009 and published these Research Survey Reports through M/s Oxford University Press (OUP), New Delhi.

The Seventh Round of Research Survey would start very soon in various disciplines of Social Science.

National Social Science Documentation Centre (NASSDOC)

The National Social Science Documentation Centre (NASSDOC) was established in 1970 as a division of the ICSSR. It provides library and information services to the Social Science Research community including: academic institutions, autonomous research organisations, policy making bodies, planning and research units of the government departments etc. To meet the technology-driven world challenges, it uses web-based digital environment to create, apply and utilise the information with its automated library collection, Web-OPAC, online databases/ e-resources, digital repository, information gateway etc. Major activities and services of the NASSDOC include: Library, Reference & Information Services; E-resources for ICSSR's Research Institutes & Regional Centres; Compilation of Short Bibliographies/Literature Search Services; Microfilm & Microfiche Services; Continuing Education Programme; Value Added Services like Current Awareness Service (CAS);

Impactful Policy Research in Social Science (IMPRESS)

Impactful Policy Research in Social Science (IMPRESS) is an idea of its own kind that aims to provide a research-based roadmap to address policy challenges pertaining to society and so, the social science expanses. The proposal of Impactful Policy Research in Social Sciences named scheme IMPRESS was approved by Government of India in August 2018 with a total budget of 414 Crore spread over three financial years for its implementation starting from October 2018. ICSSR being a highly reputed social science research Council under the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Department of Higher Education, Government of India, New Delhi was entrusted with the responsibility of implementing the scheme.

This financial year saw the completion of all 739 projects sanctioned under the first call of IMPRESS. However, 65 projects were surrendered halfway by the Project Directors due to COVID-19 and other reasons. Total 650 final reports were received, including 100 projects received in the year 2022-23. Details of the final report may be seen at Appendix - 12.

International Collaboration

Promoting social science research through international collaboration is one of the major approaches followed by the ICSSR. Under this programme, the Council provides opportunity to both Indian and foreign scholars to interact, learn, research and contribute to social science in India and abroad. The Council undertakes several important activities under the programme which include bilateral and multilateral collaborations with foreign funding councils and social science organisations, providing financial assistance to Indian scholars for presenting papers in international conferences & data collection abroad etc.

The ICSSR has established strong bilateral social science collaborative agreements with its counterparts abroad. Besides, the Council is one of the implementing agencies of the 'Cultural Exchange Programme' and 'Educational Exchange Programme' of the Government of India with other countries.

Our crucial task is to promote and fund innovative, interdisciplinary/multidisciplinary and policy relevant social science research in the country and thus, lead the way in which social science research is to be shaped and strengthened in India which also incorporates collaborative research with similar Councils or agencies abroad. Our vision is to nurture, train and build capacity of social scientists through a comprehensive, challenging and innovative training in research.

International Travel Grant for Paper Presentation/ Data Collection Abroad

In pursuance of its policy to promote closer contacts between India and overseas social scientists, the ICSSR has developed two programmes. Under the first, financial assistance is provided to Indian scholars, who have been invited to contribute and present papers at International Conferences abroad. In its second programme, ICSSR provides financial assistance to scholars who intends to visit abroad for the purposes of data collection or consulting archival material in connection with their research work. The International Collaboration Programme has spent a total of ₹ 228.73 lakh for all its activities during the year 2022-23. List of proposals is given in Appendix 9.

Further, year-wise details about the Travel Grant funded by the ICSSR since its inception may be seen in Table No. 3.1.

The ICSSR has emerged, over the years, as a premier social science research organization in India with a highly visible international presence. Activities relating to promoting academic links among social scientists of India and other countries of the world have been the prime task of the 'International Collaboration Division'. The Division, on behalf of the Council, leads programmes of collaboration and joint research with several countries and organizations.

International Collaboration Programme

While the ICSSR is continuing its cooperation with the existing programmes of different countries like National Research Council of Thailand (NRCT), Thailand; Vietnam Academy of Social Science (VASS), Vietnam; National Science Foundation (NSF), Sri Lanka; Economic and Social Research Council (ESRC), UK; The Netherlands Scientific Organization (NWO), The Netherlands; German Research Foundation (DFG), Germany; Korean Social Science Research Council (KOSSREC), Republic of Korea; Swiss National Science Foundation (SNSF), Switzerland; Ministry of Science and Technology (MOST), Taipei, Taiwan; Japan Society for Promotion of Science (JSPS), Japan; National Institute for the Humanities and Social Sciences (NIHSS), South Africa; Philippine Social Science Council (PSSC), Philippines; British Council (BC), UK; European Commission (EC); Institute of Oriental Studies (IOS), Russian Academy of Science, Moscow; Swedish Research Council for Health, Working Life and Welfare (FORTE), Sweden; Academy of Sciences and Arts of Bosnia and Herzegovina (ANUBiH), Sarajevo, Bosnia and Herzegovina. The ICSSR is also the nodal agency of the Sub Commission on Social Sciences constituted by the Ministry of Education under the Indian National Commission for Cooperation with UNESCO (INCCU).

Broad-basing ICSSR through Interdisciplinary and Trans-disciplinary Collaborations

In India, there are scientific, medical and agricultural councils, which too have international collaborations. The ICSSR is developing programmes which would have stronger and deeper interface between society and science through bilateral or multilateral agreements with research organisations like DST, ICMR, DBT, ICAR etc. Besides, the ICSSR is planning to collaborate with IIMs, IITs and NITs of the country to have joint workshops and seminars. Similarly, the ICSSR plans to have collaborative arrangements with National Law Universities of India (NLUs).

There is a constant move to project a strong innovative role of the ICSSR through new programmes & activities under International Collaboration Programme.

Bilateral Collaborative Programme

The ICSSR has signed 'Bilateral Collaborative Programmes' with parallel organizations of several countries to implement activities such as exchange of scholars, joint seminars, joint projects, joint publications, exchange of books and periodicals, etc. The Council also plans to invite eminent foreign scholars to visit India for delivering lectures under its scheme of "Visit of Distinguished Scholars".

Research Institutes

Background

The Indian Council of Social Science Research provides maintenance and development grant to 24 Research Institutes spread across the length and breadth of India. Sponsoring of these Research Institutes outside the scope of the University Grants Commission has been one of the major programmes of the Council in enlarging the base of social science knowledge, improving the quality of research and promoting an interdisciplinary perspective. These Institutes constitute an important mechanism for implementing the Council's policy of dispersal of research talents and building up of research capabilities in the different regions of the country, particularly in the areas where social science research is not yet well developed.

These Research Institutes have established close links with the scholars in the region as well as elsewhere through various activities such as seminars, workshops, training and consultancy programmes. Some of the Institutes are closely associated with national and state level planning and development agencies and have thereby strengthened the links between research and policy making.

Each Institute determines its own direction of research, which includes a wide spectrum of subjects related to agricultural and rural development, industrial structure and growth, income distribution and poverty, employment and wages, inter-regional differences in levels of development, education, health, nutrition, problems of weaker sections of society including women, energy, technology, ecology and environment and social, cultural, historical and institutional aspects of development. Thus, research studies have generated substantial empirical knowledge of the structure of Indian economy, polity, history and society and their dynamics both at the national and regional levels.

During the last five years, the Institutes have completed 1349 research projects, while 1581 were on-going. What is more significant in these efforts is that they are not only interdisciplinary in character, but also focused on regional and local problems. In this process, they have become centres of research for the region's specific issues and have greatly contributed to an awareness of the nature of development problems and potential of the country as a whole. In terms of publications, the Institutes have brought out 685 books & reports and 913 working papers during the last five years.

Another important activity that has been given importance by the Council is training of young social scientists by the Research Institutes through M.Phil. and Ph.D. programmes, workshops and seminars. During the last five years, 249 Ph.Ds. have been awarded and 2256 scholars have been working on their Ph.Ds. The Council can legitimately take pride in its role in promoting the research and training efforts made by the Research Institutes. A total of 292 projects were completed in these Institutes during the year under report. The total number of ongoing studies at the end of the year was 356.

Research Institutes disseminate the results of their research studies in the form of published books, monographs, working/occasional papers, etc. During the year under report, the number of books/reports published was 75, monographs/mimeographs 14 and working/occasional papers 145. The number of research papers published was 376.

The Institutes also undertake training of young social scientists and assist fresh researchers in designing and conducting their research. To this end, doctoral fellowships have been provided to these Institutes. Some of the Institutes have been assisting in teaching and training programmes for M.Phil. and Ph.D. students. In addition, as per the Council's policy, they participate in postgraduate teaching, research guidance in the universities and also involve the university teachers in their research programmes. During the year, 404 scholars were working under the guidance of the faculties of the Research Institutes, 55 were awarded Ph.D. degrees and 15 scholars submitted their doctoral dissertations.
