PROGRAMMES

Overview

It is widely regarded that social science research enhances our understanding of the society and its functioning, as it opens up debate and gives us a say in shaping our collective future. This, in turn, provides policy inputs for socio-economic development and generates ideas and information that can be used in policy framing, teaching and research. Thus, social science research renders vital services to society and the country.

India has a long and rich tradition of commissioning research in social science teaching. In ancient times, Takshashila, Nalanda, Vikramashila, Vallabhi, Pushpagiri and Somapura universities flourished as global centres of learning in different parts of India. The subjects taught in these universities included Vedas, Vedanta, Ayurveda, Medicine and Surgery, Jurisprudence, Mathematics, Astronomy, Physics, Metallurgy, Civil Engineering, Architecture, Philosophy, Grammar, Agriculture, Economics, Commerce, Politics, Statecraft, Military Education, Literature and Craft etc. These universities set very high standards of teaching, learning and research for scholars from across the world. This system of Indian education produced scholars of great stature such as Aryabhata, Bhaskaracharya, Amarsimha, Chandrabardai, Banbhatta, Dandin, Jivaka Komarabhacca, Mahaviracharya, Charaka, Susruta, Baudhayan, Chanakya, Brahmagupta, Panini, Patanjali, Nagarjuna, Pingala, Gargi, Kanad, Varahamihira, Thiruvalluvar and so on.

In the modern era, under colonial auspices, social science teaching and research in the country, however, was transformed with the introduction of the modern university system in the second half of the 19th century, as exemplified by the coming into existence of the Senate of Serampore University (1829), the University of Mumbai (1857), University of Madras (1857), University of Calcutta (1857) and Allahabad University (1875). This was the time when the Indian Oriental Renaissance was confronted with the onslaught of the West's Christian missionaries and colonial discourse, and subsequently was demoted due to hegemonic eurocentric perspectives. The real paradigm breakthrough for social science research came only after Independence with the rapid expansion of the higher education system as a part of the planned socio-economic development. As the country's development process threw up numerous and diverse challenges that required extensive research and analysis, the Government of India established a Committee for Social Science Research under the Chairmanship of Professor V.K.R.V. Rao in 1965 to review the social science research scenario in the country and make recommendations to accelerate its progress. This led to the establishment of the Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR) in 1969 to encourage, promote and fund social science research in the country. In due course of our sociological learning curve, we identified issues which are crucial for the future growth and development of social science research in India. It is urgently required to correct distorted perspectives in social science research, engendered by an over-reliance on Western conceptual frameworks. To reinvigorate this corrective exercise, teaching in the mother tongue by using local materials, conducting research by insiders, as well redefining research priorities and reorienting theoretical and methodological framework must be emphasized.

The need of the hour is to shift from merely documenting the 'exceptionalism' of India to engaging in pluralised sociologies of India so as to be able to represent a larger variety of issues, generate new theories and perspectives in order to represent the multiple voices of varied people of India while engaging in international comparison to generate more broadly applicable conceptual insights. Presently, social scientists are endeavouring to discard Western methodology, and in its place Indic phenomena are being perceived with the actual lens of Indian society and culture.

The ICSSR is an autonomous body under the Ministry of Education, Government of India and a premier organisation with 24 Research Institutes (grant-in-aid), Sixteen Recognised Research Institutes and six Regional Centres located in different parts of the country.

The ICSSR's aims and objectives, as spelled out in its Memorandum of Association (MoA), are the following:

- To review and survey the progress of the Social Science Research and advise the Government on policy issues;
- To fund and promote Social Science Research in Universities/Colleges/Research Institutes;
- To award Doctoral, Post-Doctoral, Senior and National Fellowships to researchers and faculties;
- To award Minor, Major and Collaborative Research Projects to researchers and faculties;
- To fund National and International Seminars and Conferences to disseminate social science research findings;
- To support Training and Capacity Building Programmes for young researchers and faculties;
- To provide International Travel and Data Collection Grants to scholars and faculties;
- To encourage International Collaboration in social science research with well recognized foreign research funding agencies;
- To fund the publication of journals and books in social science research and also strengthen professional social science associations/ organizations;
- To provide library, documentation, data and online services for social science research; and
- To indicate periodic themes in neglected and new critical areas of research.

During the last 55 years since its establishment, the ICSSR has been actively promoting and funding social science research in the country. It provides regular maintenance and development grants to its Research Institutes (on matching grant basis) to study National and Regional research issues from interdisciplinary perspectives. It also fully supports its six Regional Centres which represent the Council within their respective regions with the aim of disseminating the programmes and schemes of the ICSSR. Under the International Collaboration Programme, the ICSSR has signed bilateral collaborative agreements with 13 countries including the United Kingdom, Japan, South Africa, Germany, South Korea, Switzerland, Sri Lanka, Vietnam, Philippines, Netherlands, Sweden, Taiwan, Bosnia & Herzegovina, as well as Cultural Exchange Programmes with three countries, namely, France, China and Thailand, in order to engage in activities such as the exchange of scholars, joint seminars, research projects, publications, exchange of books and periodicals. The ICSSR also participates in the activities of the international social science organisations like The International Science Council (ISC), Science Council of Asia (SCA) and UNESCO etc. The Council serves as the nodal agency for participating in the activities of the UNESCO's MOST (Management of Social Transformation) programme and its implementation.

Since its inception, the ICSSR has granted 9,356 Major, Minor and Collaborative Research Projects (Including IMPRESS) and Special Call Projects, awarded 7,987 full-term Doctoral Fellowships, 3,274 Post-Doctoral Fellowships, 888 Senior Fellowships and 174 National Fellowships. It has sponsored 5,267 National and 1422 International seminars/conferences, funded 2,417 scholars for attending seminars abroad as well as 486 scholars for data collection abroad. The ICSSR has sponsored 1,250 Research Methodology Courses and Training & Capacity Building Programmes for young faculty and researchers, provided financial assistance to 1,892 scholars for publication of their Doctoral Theses/ Projects/ Fellowship Reports/ Conference Proceedings, and financially supported 1,141 social science journals, including 427 professional associations involved in social science research activities. It has also conducted Six Rounds of Surveys on the current status of research in crucial social science disciplines, namely, Economics, Political Science, Sociology and Social Anthropology, Geography and Psychology, in the country. These surveys have also been published by the ICSSR in collaboration with reputed publishers like Sage, Pearson and Oxford University Press (OUP) etc. The ICSSR used to publish a prestigious social science research journal, namely 'The Indian Social Science Review' which was discontinued in 2011 and has now been resumed; research papers and articles have been reviewed by eminent experts, and the shortlisted articles will be published. Apart from this, the ICSSR provides research services such as library, documentation, data and e-resources to several thousand social science scholars and faculties across the country through its National Social Science Documentation Centre (NASSDOC).

The ICSSR has been offering its research-based advice, whenever needed, to the Government of India on policy relevant issues; in particular, it has contributed in the Newton-Vivekanand Programme with the U.K. It has also carried out studies for various Ministries of the Government of India, including the Ministry of Social Justice & Empowerment, Ministry of Minority Affairs, Ministry of Home Affairs and the Ministry of Science and Technology. In addition, there is a considerable presence of ICSSR studies and references in various policy documents and reports of the Ministries and the erstwhile Planning Commission. Moreover, the Member Secretary and Council members regularly participate and contribute to the deliberations of other government organisations involved in policy making or implementation such as the University Grants Commission, Indian Statistical Institute, Council of Scientific and Industrial Research (CSIR), Indian Council of World Affairs, Indian Institute of Advanced Study, NITI Aayog, ICPR, ICHR etc. Many officers of the ICSSR have also held presentations on various schemes of the Council.

As the ICSSR has completed 55 years of its existence, it faces significant challenges alongside opportunities while giving direction to social science research in India and actively participating in social science research at a global level. According to the University Grants Commission

Annual Report 2022-23, UGC listed 56 Central Universities, 465 State Public Universities, 433 State Private Universities, 4 Institutions established under the State Legislature Act and 127 Institutions Deemed to be Universities. Similarly, as per the data drawn from the International Standard Series Number (ISSN) and Ulrich International Periodical Directory data books, there were 2,131 social science journals published in India during the period 2000-2015.

Moreover, with the introduction of the 'National Institutional Ranking Framework (NIRF)' by the Ministry of Education (previously known as the Ministry of Human Resource Development), Government of India, in 2015, more focus is being laid on the type of research, as the rankings significantly depend on the research orientation and related output of the institutes or universities. Consequently, policy makers are concerned with adopting newer strategies and 'best global practices' for enhancing the research quality and culture, with the ulterior aim of improving the global rankings of Indian institutes and Universities. This is also reflected in the notable increase of 'Institutes of National Importance', a distinction conferred on premier public higher education institutions in India by an Act of the Indian Parliament. Thus, all institutions entrusted with the task of promoting and supporting research, such as the ICSSR, face this key challenge of promoting advanced, novel and cutting-edge research to help institutes and universities improve their national and global rankings and also build a robust research culture in the country. Nonetheless, there exist immense opportunities that place the ICSSR in an advantageous position to play a leading role in social science research and policy, at the national as well as international levels.

The 21st century is widely said to belong to Asia, where India, Japan and China are perceived as major actors. India and China have already been emerging at a rapid growth rate in the last three decades. The end of the Cold War and the growing impact of globalisation also requires India to redefine its position and role at the regional and global levels. Ever since economic liberalisation of the 1990s, India's global presence has been steadily rising. India has been one of the fastest growing economies for more than three decades; furthermore, it is the world's fifth largest economy after the United States, China, Japan and Germany (in nominal GDP terms) and the third-largest by Purchasing Power Parity (PPP) (as per IMF & World Bank). In the next few years, it is projected to be among the top three economies of the world. Given this scenario, there are many issues that constitute common global research concerns, and at the same time, there are a number of national and policy specific research concerns that individual countries are keen to examine with a view to understanding the existing problems and finding their possible solutions. Rising population, national security, development patterns, water resources, climate change, sustainability, migration, urban infrastructure, inclusiveness, etc. are some of India's specific concerns. Often, given that nations converge in terms of their common problems, the same can be said for their research concerns.

India's aspiration to become one of the global leaders in knowledge creation rests on its research capabilities and infrastructure. The research ultimately must serve society and should contribute towards policy formulation and its objective assessment. At the same time, modern research is transcending the tight disciplinary compartments and moving towards inter- and multi-disciplinarity, where many disciplines combine their intellectual and infrastructural resources to achieve the common objective for the greater benefit of society at large. In this respect, the ICSSR's role acquires a greater significance as we have been promoting such inter- or multidisciplinary research. Even developments in science and technology need to adopt a social science perspective to achieve greater acceptability of new developments, as well as to prepare society to accept and adapt to those developments. Fortunately, all these aspects of robust research and innovation have been well captured by the 'National Education Policy, 2020' which underlines that "Knowledge creation and research are well known to be centrally critical to growing and sustaining a large and vibrant economy, uplifting society and continuously inspiring a nation to achieve even greater heights. [...] A robust ecosystem of research is perhaps more important than ever with the rapid changes occurring in the world today [...]."

India is viewed as a major stakeholder in the global political, economic and technological environment, and, therefore, its research output is expected to have a larger share in global quality research. New research is leading to many paradigm shifts which are challenging colonial concepts and theories. There is also a greater emphasis on analysing India's challenges and problems based on our own socio-political and economic conditions, instead of viewing them through a western conceptual and empirical prism. Such research is better placed to solve various local or community and country-specific problems and suggest innovative solutions and alternatives.

The ICSSR intends to intensely promote social science research in India with the support of the Government and other research organisations. India's high growth rate of social science publications at the international level (Scopus Statistics) is a strong indicator of India's present role, as also in the years to come. It is also reflected in the 'Times Higher Education' (THE) Ranking 2023, where Indian universities rank among the top 300 universities, globally. Markedly conscious of its new role, the ICSSR has undertaken some vital steps in this regard. Now, it is focusing on both the quantitative expansion of its programmes and schemes, as well as on producing a quality research output. Every year, the ICSSR provides financial assistance to thousands of scholars, faculties and research organisations to encourage and promote quality social science research in the country.

The ICSSR Organisational Structure: The ICSSR's highest decision-making body, known as the Council, has 27 members, which includes the ICSSR Chairman and the Member-Secretary, 18 Social Scientists (Non-Ex-Officio members), one Co-opted member and 6 Ex-officio members representing the Government of India. The list containing members of the Governing Council is given in Appendix 1.

The Member Secretary is the Chief Executive Officer and heads the ICSSR Secretariat consisting of Directors, Deputy Directors, Assistant Directors and other officials. The ICSSR's officials, apart from their normal official duties, make regular contributions through research papers, articles, articles in edited books, journals, etc., and have also delivered lectures during the reporting year.

The Council has three standing committees, namely the Research Committee (RC), Research Institutes Committee (RIC) and Planning and Administration Committee (PAC). During the financial year 2023-24, the ICSSR has conducted its meetings of the Council, Research Committee, Research Institutes Committee and Planning & Administration Committee to ensure the smooth functioning of different divisions.

This is the 55th Annual Report of the Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR) delineating the Council's activities from 1st April, 2023 to 31st March, 2024.

Special Call Projects

The first special call was given out in July 2023, for Short-term Empirical Research to study the reach and the socio-economic impact of 31 social welfare schemes launched by the Government of India since 2014. The research was to be carried out in two categories, i.e. Individual Study and Collaborative Study by a group of 4 to 6 Scholars. The duration of the projects was six months, commencing from Sep 2023. The Call was advertised on ICSSR website on 12th June, 2023. The last date of receipt of research proposals was 22nd July, 2023.

ICSSR received a total of 3,801 applications in two categories (individual and collaborative) across all 31 social welfare schemes. After stringent scrutiny by a panel of experts, 515 projects were shortlisted and awarded funding. Out of these 515 projects, 290 projects were awarded in the collaborative category and 225 projects in individual category. Till date, 15 awardees (6 from the collaborative category and 9 from individual category) have withdrawn from the Empirical Research Program. As on 31st March 2023, out of 501 projects currently ongoing, 232 workshops to disseminate the outcome of the research (165 Collaborative Studies and 107 Individual studies) have been conducted by the awardees, all over Bharat. The beneficiaries of the welfare schemes and other stakeholders along with the Government officials responsible for implementation and execution of these schemes participated in these workshops.

As on 31st March, 2024, 230 reports from the Collaborative Research Category and 177 report from the individual research category have been received. The final reports received are being scrutinised and analysed by a panel of experts set up by ICSSR. The research outcome of each social welfare scheme covered under the short-term empirical research program will be communicated to the relevant ministries of the Government of India. The recommendations given by the researchers to make these schemes even more viable and efficient for the beneficiary citizens of Bharat are also being compiled and will be communicated to the Government of India. ICSSR will also be preparing a Policy Brief from the outcome of the research for each of these schemes, and communicating to the GoI.

The detailed list of projects awarded under both the categories (collaborative and individual) is provided in Appendix-3.

Research Projects

The Research Projects Division provides financial grants to esteemed social scientists to conduct research studies. These grants enable scholars to delve into various social science areas, exploring theories, concepts, methodologies, and policy issues. Research Projects, both individual and institutional, are important ways to promote social science research in the country. Therefore, the research projects may belong to any of the social science disciplines or may be multi-disciplinary in nature.

Categories of Projects

The ICSSR awards two types of Research Projects to Indian scholars: (a) Major and Minor Research Projects earlier known as Research Projects (Responsive) (b) Research Programmes previously known as Research Projects (Sponsored).

Major and Minor Research Projects: These studies address significant issues in the social sciences and may focus on specific aspects of social phenomena, explore emerging trends, or pilot new methodologies or approaches in social science research.

Research Programmes: Research Programmes are a series of research studies undertaken simultaneously or sequentially on themes of significance and priority in social sciences. These studies, identified by the ICSSR from time to time, are expected to be inter-institutional and interdisciplinary or multi-disciplinary in nature for critical understanding of social science research and develop deeper understanding in terms of theory, methodology and policy outcome. However, high impact studies which are broad in character but fall within the ambit of a single discipline may also be considered.

The specific objectives of the programme are: (a) to support high quality independent programme of research; (b) to provide opportunities for training of future researchers; (c) to contribute to the development of new theoretical or methodological approaches to research; (d) to maintain and sustain various disciplinary research activities; (e) to foster and promote collaborative, interdisciplinary and Multidisciplinary research activities among researchers in social science; and (f) to facilitate communication of research outputs both within and outside the academic community and also to provide key inputs to policy makers.

Major and Minor Research Projects

Major and Minor Projects are basically demand-driven. Under this scheme, the ICSSR provides grant to scholars to conduct research on the topics of their choice. The year-wise position of research projects sanctioned since inception and reports received till 31st March 2024 is furnished in Table 2.1.

Research Programmes

Research Programmes are a series of research studies undertaken simultaneously or sequentially on themes of significance and priority in policy and Social Science Research. These studies, identified by the ICSSR from time to time, are expected to be inter-disciplinary or multi-disciplinary or inter-institutional in nature for critical understanding of new social science research issues and develop deeper understanding in terms of theory, methodology, new findings and policy outcomes. However, high impact studies which are extensive in structure but fall within the ambit of a single discipline are also considered.

The scheme of Research Projects (Sponsored) or Research Programme was launched in 2011-12 with All India Report on Educational Status of Scheduled Castes & Scheduled Tribes and Denotified Tribes (DNT) for various states. Year-wise position of research programmes sanctioned since 2011-12, projects cancelled/ withdrawn/closed and reports received till 31st March 2024 is given in Table 2.2.

New Awards

The ICSSR gave a 'Call for Applications' on September 15th, 2023 inviting online applications for ICSSR Major and Minor Projects for the year 2023-24. It received 5761 applications (Major-2950 and Minor-2811) against the Call. After rigorous scrutiny and evaluation process, the Council awarded 377 projects (Major-178 & Minor-199). A list of the awarded projects has been given in Appendix-3.

Similarly, a call inviting applications was announced on 12th January 2024, "History and Sociology of Art, Craft, Culture, and Folk Tradition of the Regions of India". The ICSSR received 582 applications against the call out of which 21 were found to be ineligible. Following rounds of evaluations and interactions, 51 projects were awarded by the ICSSR. A list of the same has been attached in Appendix -3.

In order to encourage active participation by scholars, the ICSSR fellows are required to produce at least three to five research papers/articles in reputed journals during the course of their fellowship, related to the theme of their research. In the year of 2023-24, 540 research papers have been published by fellows in various research journals.

Out of these, 49 research papers were published in Scopus indexed journals, 177 in UGC listed Journals and the remaining research papers were published in the peer reviewed or refereed journals of international and national repute.

During the year 2023-24, the total expenditure for National/ Senior/ Post-doctoral Fellowship schemes was Rs. 1885.43 Lakh (General - Rs. 1447.61 Lakh, SC - 314.08 Lakh, ST - Rs. 123.74 Lakh).

Doctoral Fellowships

ICSSR Doctoral Fellowships are awarded to selected registered Ph.D. scholars to pursue and complete their doctoral thesis in social science disciplines. The main aim of the scheme is to provide financial support to scholars to enable them to focus full time on their research work and bring out quality research output in form of their Ph.D. thesis and publications.

ICSSR is providing Doctoral Fellowships under its 'Centrally-Administered Doctoral Fellowship Schemes' and 'Institutional Doctoral Fellowship Scheme' in accordance with the prescribed guidelines. In case of Centrally-Administered Schemes, the fellowships are awarded and monitored directly by ICSSR and the concerned doctoral fellows are affiliated to a university or college. Under the Institutional Fellowship Scheme, the doctoral fellows are affiliated to and monitored by an ICSSR Grant-in-Aid Research Institute. The Call for the Doctoral Fellowships is given by ICSSR and the fellowships are awarded after screening and evaluation by the Expert Committees. The Full-Term Doctoral Fellowships are essentially for a tenure of two years or till the thesis submission at the university, whichever is earlier.

In addition to the Institutional Doctoral Fellowship scheme, the following three schemes are available under the Doctoral Fellowship Programme:

1. The Full-Term Doctoral Fellowship is awarded for a period of two years or till the thesis submission at the university, whichever is earlier.
2. The Short-Term Doctoral Fellowship is awarded for six months period to support scholars who are at final stages of their doctoral work.
3. Contingency Grant is a consolidated grant for meeting the expenses on thesis work and is provided to scholars who have not received any contingency grant.

Doctoral Fellowship Awards, 2023-2024

ICSSR had invited online applications for its Doctoral Fellowships for the year 2023-24 by placing a Call for Applications on its website on 11 October 2023. Simultaneously, the ICSSR Institutes were asked to initiate the process of inviting applications. In response to this, 3,307 applications were received out of which 3,261 were submitted online for the Centrally Administered Fellowships schemes and 46 applications were forwarded by ICSSR Institutes. Eventually, 3263 applicants qualified for evaluation of research proposals by the Expert Committee (2,926 for Centrally-Administered Full-Term fellowship, 240 for Short-Term Fellowship, 53 for Contingency Grant and 44 for Institutional Fellowship). Expert Committee comprising of 48 subject experts was constituted to undertake assessment of the 3,263 research proposals. Subsequently, ICSSR provisionally awarded 482 Full-Term Doctoral Fellowships, out of which 472 were awarded under Centrally-Administered scheme and 10 under the Institutional Doctoral Fellowships scheme. Out of the 472 Centrally-Administered awardees, 189 belonged to General, 47 to EWS (GEN), 128 to OBC (NCL), 72 to SC and 36 to ST categories. The list of fellowship awardees is placed in annexure 4.

The research institute-wise details of the 46 applications received for Institutional Doctoral Fellowships from Research Institutes and 10 fellowships awarded, is given in Table 2.6:

National and International Seminars/Conferences

Sponsoring/funding Seminars/Conferences in India is one of the major activities of ICSSR to promote deliberations on issues of high importance in social science research. They provide opportunities to researchers and academicians to exchange views and research findings, discuss important research questions on policy relevant issues, and generate academic research output on important social problems. Although, the ICSSR itself organizes a few seminars on policy relevant themes, most of its support is in the form of full or partial financial assistance to academic institutions to organize National and International seminars in India on themes of contemporary relevance in different disciplines of social science and interdisciplinary social science areas with national or international participation and perspective.

During the financial year 2023-24, ICSSR received over 1072 proposals for organizing International/National Seminars/Conferences from all across India, out of which 572 proposals were selected for funding by the Expert Committee. The list of seminars approved may be seen at Appendix-5. Further year-wise details about the seminars funded by the ICSSR since its inception may be seen in Table No. 2.8

ICSSR Organised Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav (AKAM) Lecture Series

"Amrit Kaal Vimarsh: Viksit Bharat@2047" Lecture Series

The Amrit Kaal has witnessed many initiatives with respect to government schemes and public policy initiatives. Sankalp Se Siddhi has appeared as one of the mantras in this Amrit Kaal to achieve the successful implementations of developmental schemes. The processes, impacts and result of these developmental actions, require academic engagements to review and reimagine them in the context of Viksit Bharat@2047'. It is in this context that ICSSR, through its Regional Centres supported colleges/universities in different parts of the country in organizing a Lecture Series on the theme “Amrit Kaal Vimarsh: Viksit Bharat@2047”. Under this series, the ICSSR facilitated a discourse/dialogue culture in our educational institutions on the development of the nation, in which faculty and students formed a public sphere around these grassroots transformations and fast changing developmental scenarios in India. The ICSSR had proposed to organize the lectures across the country to be delivered by eminent speakers on different themes through which it will enrich the academic community, students and youth about Viksit Bharat, success stories of our developmental initiatives and their social impacts.

In this series, the ICSSR organized 22 lectures across the country which were delivered by eminent speakers on different themes through which it enriched the academic community, students and youth about Viksit Bharat, success stories of our developmental initiatives and their social impacts.

During the financial year, the following twenty-two lectures have been organised under the Amrit Kaal Vimarsh Lecture Series:

Training and Capacity Building Programme

The basic requirement for a high-quality research in Social Science is the training in the science and art of doing research. While the philosophical basis of social science research is common to all disciplines of social sciences, different subjects have evolved their own theoretical frameworks and discipline specific techniques of research. However, scholars engaging themselves in interdisciplinary or multi-disciplinary research need to familiarize themselves with the research methodologies applied in disciplines other than their own in which they are trained. Moreover, from the stage of identification of research problem to methodology and finally, reporting and analysis of findings and also publication of these findings, there are several aspects in which a good researcher has to refine his/her skills. Therefore, the ICSSR supports and sponsors Research Methodology and Capacity Building Programmes in Universities and Research Institutes.

The ICSSR provides grants to the social science faculties for organizing Research Methodology Course (RMC) and Capacity Building Programme

(CBP) for young researchers and faculties in various social science disciplines, which may include training in multidisciplinary areas and research tools.

The programme is divided into two broad categories:

(A) Research Methodology Course (RMC)

The aim of the course is to enhance the methodological and writing skills of the PDF/ PhD scholars and develop their potentials as social science researchers or future faculties.

(B) Capacity Building Programme (CBP)

The objective of this programme is to expose the young faculties, mainly at the level of Assistant Professors, in social science disciplines to the latest advances in their subjects and also to improve their capacity in understanding of methodology and writing skills. The Programme aims at enhancing the academic and intellectual environment in the Institutions by providing faculty members with enough opportunities to pursue research and enable faculty members to update their research and pedagogical skills. The Capacity Building Programme (CBP) intends to provide financial assistance to facilitate up-gradation of knowledge, skill and intends to provide opportunities for induction training to teachers employed in social science disciplines.

Since 1971, when the programme was first conceptualised and till 2023-24, 1250 Research Methodology, and Capacity Building Programmes have been funded by the ICSSR. During the year under report, a total of 168 proposals for both Research Methodology Course and Capacity Building Programme (RMC-104 and CBP-64) were received and placed before the Expert Committees for evaluation.

The Committees had approved 83 proposals (50 under Research Methodology Course and 33 under Capacity Building) with a total expenditure of Rs. 338.35 lakh. The lists of Research Methodology Course and Capacity Building Courses approved in the year may be seen at Appendix -6.

The details about RMC and CBP courses organised/funded by the ICSSR is given in Table 2.9

Publications and Research Survey

Research Survey and Publication Programme is another major activity of the ICSSR through which it disseminates important research outputs produced both within and outside the Council. Under its publication programme, the Council provides grants to (a) Indian nationals for publication of their Doctoral Thesis, Project/Fellowship Reports, Monographs and Seminar/Workshop Papers in the areas of social sciences and (b) Professional associations/organisations of social scientists including universities, colleges and research institutes for publication or continuing with their research journal(s). It also provides ad-hoc grants to professional associations/organisations of social scientists for maintenance and developmental activities. So far, the ICSSR has published their 1892 books, supported 1141 associations/organisations for publication of their research journals and provided adhoc grant to 427 associations/ organisations for maintenance & development activities. During the year 2023-24, Four (04) doctoral thesis and research reports were published with ICSSR grant. Similarly, 32 professional organizations/associations of social scientists received ICSSR grant of Rs. 53.95 lakh for publication of their 34 research journals and 15 organisations received grant amounting to Rs. 54 lakh for their maintenance and development.

The details of published books, grants given to professional associations/organisations for Maintenance & Development and grants for publication of Research Journals are given in Appendix 7 and Table 2.10.

Moreover, since its inception, the Council has undertaken the task of surveying research developments in chosen disciplines of social science through its programme, 'Surveys of Research'.

The core objective of these surveys is to have a comprehensive overview of research undertaken during a specified period, involving stock-taking of what has been achieved in a particular social science discipline or area in terms of theory, methodology, empirical evidence and the gaps which need to be prioritized for future researches. So far, the ICSSR has published around 70 Volumes of Research Surveys and 60 other publications.

The Council has completed the Sixth Round of ICSSR Research Survey in the disciplines of Psychology, Political Science, Geography, Sociology & Social Anthropology and Economics covering the period 2003-2009 and published these Research Survey Reports through M/s Oxford University Press (OUP), New Delhi.

The Seventh Round of Research Survey would start very soon in various disciplines of Social Science.

National Social Science Documentation Centre (NASSDOC)

The National Social Science Documentation Centre (NASSDOC) was established in 1970 as a division of the ICSSR. It provides library and information services to the Social Science Research community including: academic institutions, autonomous research organizations, policy-making bodies, planning and research units of the government departments etc. To meet the technology-driven world challenges, it uses a web-based digital environment to create, apply and utilize the information with its automated library collection, Web-OPAC, online databases/ e-resources, digital repository, e-library portal etc. Major activities and services of the NASSDOC include: Library, Reference & Information Services; E-resources for ICSSR's Research Institutes & Regional Centres; Compilation of Short Bibliographies/Literature Search Services; Microfilm Services; Continuing Education Programme; Value Added Services like Current Awareness Service (CAS); and e-resources access in social sciences with the state of the art 'Digital Resources Learning Centre' (DRLC).

International Collaboration

Promoting social science research through international collaboration is one of the major approaches followed by the ICSSR. Under this programme, the Council provides opportunity to both Indian and foreign scholars to interact, learn, research and contribute to social science in India and abroad. The Council undertakes several important activities under the programme which include bilateral and multilateral collaborations with foreign funding councils and social science organisations, providing financial assistance to Indian scholars for presenting papers in international conferences & data collection abroad etc.

The ICSSR has established strong bilateral social science collaborative agreements with its counterparts abroad. Besides, the Council is one of the implementing agencies of the 'Cultural Exchange Programme' and 'Educational Exchange Programme' of the Government of India with other countries.

Our crucial task is to promote and fund innovative, interdisciplinary / multidisciplinary and policy relevant social science research in the country and thus, lead the way in which social science research is to be shaped and strengthened in India which also incorporates collaborative research with similar Councils or agencies abroad. Its vision is to nurture, train and build capacity of social scientists through a comprehensive, challenging and innovative training in research.

The International Collaboration Programme of the ICSSR provides an opportunity to both Indian and foreign scholars in the field of social sciences to interact and research. Financial assistance is also provided to Indian social scientists, who have been invited to present and contribute paper at seminars/conferences abroad. The ICSSR also provides financial assistance to social scientists who have a plan to visit abroad for the purpose of data collection or consulting archival material in connection with their research work.

International Travel Grant for Paper Presentation/ Data Collection Abroad

The aim of this programme is to assist social science scholars in making substantial contributions to important International Seminars/ Conferences. The programme thus promotes academic links amongst the social scientists in India and abroad, provides opportunity to develop new insights and enlarges their research perspectives and contributes to the advancement and dissemination of knowledge in social science subjects.

In pursuance of its policy to promote closer contacts between India and overseas social scientists, the ICSSR has developed two programmes. Under the first, financial assistance is provided to Indian scholars, who have been invited to contribute and present papers at International Conferences abroad. The aim of this Scheme is to provide financial assistance to Indian social science researchers for presenting an original research paper in an international event (conference, seminar, workshop etc.) of significant importance held abroad. By doing this, it promotes academic links amongst the social scientists in India and abroad, provides opportunities to develop new insights and to enlarge their research perspective and contribute to the advancement and dissemination of knowledge in social science disciplines.

In its second programme, ICSSR provides financial assistance to scholars who intend to visit abroad for the purposes of data collection or consulting archival material in connection with their ongoing research work.

Further, year-wise details about the Travel Grant funded by the ICSSR since its inception may be seen in Table No. 3.1.

Research Institutes

Background

The Indian Council of Social Science Research provides maintenance and development grant to 24 Research Institutes. With its 24 research institutes spread around the nation, the Research Institute Division of the ICSSR aims to take the social science research to new heights. Sponsoring of Research Institutes outside the scope of the University Grants Commission has been one of the major programmes of the Council in enlarging the base of social science knowledge, improving the quality of research, and promoting an interdisciplinary perspective. These institutes have been playing a vital role by giving priority to important areas and themes that have been identified by the ICSSR and the Government of India. These Institutes constitute an important mechanism for implementing the Council's policy of dispersal of research talents and building up of research capabilities in the different regions of the country, particularly in the areas where social science research is not yet well developed.

The Research Institutes have established close links with the scholars in the region as well as elsewhere through various activities such as seminars, workshops, training and consultancy programmes. Some of the Institutes are closely associated with national and state level planning and development agencies, and have thereby strengthened the links between research and policy making.

Each Institute determines its own direction of research, which includes a wide spectrum of subjects related to agricultural and rural development, industrial structure and growth, income distribution and poverty, employment and wages, inter-regional differences in levels of development, education, health, nutrition, problems of weaker sections of society including women, energy, technology, ecology and environment, and social, cultural, historical and institutional aspects of development. Thus, research studies have generated substantial empirical knowledge of the structure of Indian economy, polity, history and society and their dynamics both at the national and regional levels.

During the last five years, the Institutes have completed 1343 research projects. These cover a wide spectrum of issues relating to areas that are already mentioned above. What is more significant in these efforts is that they are not only interdisciplinary in character, but also focused on regional and local problems. In this process, they have become centres of research for the region's specific issues and have greatly contributed to an awareness of the nature of development problems and potential of the country as a whole. In terms of publications, the Institutes have brought out 654 books & reports, 2574 research papers & articles and 913 working papers during the last five years.

Another important activity, that has been given importance by the Council is, training of young social scientists by the Research Institutes through M.Phil. and Ph.D. programmes, workshops and seminars. During the last five years, 278 Ph.Ds. have been awarded. The Council can legitimately take pride in its role in promoting the research and training efforts made by the Research Institutes. A total of 255 projects were completed in these Institutes during the year under report. The total number of ongoing studies at the end of the year was 319.

Research Institutes disseminate the results of their research studies in the form of published books, monographs, working/occasional papers, etc. During the year under report, the number of books/ reports published was 112, and 98 working/occasional papers. The number of research papers published was 468.

The Institutes also undertake training of young social scientists and assist fresh researchers in designing and conducting their research. To this end, doctoral fellowships have been provided to these Institutes. Some of the Institutes have been assisting in teaching and training programmes for M.Phil. and Ph.D. students. In addition, as per the Council's policy, they participate in postgraduate teaching, research guidance in the universities and also involve the university teachers in their research programmes. During the year², 494 scholars were working under the guidance of the faculties of the Research Institutes, 74 were awarded Ph.D. degrees and 50 scholars submitted their doctoral dissertations. Odisha Research Centre (ORC), Bhubaneswar

The Council of ICSSR in its Special Urgent Meeting held on 6th November 2023 approved the proposal to establish Odisha Research Centre (ORC), Bhubaneswar in collaboration with IKS Division of the Ministry of Education. Subsequently an MoU was signed among Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR), Indian Knowledge System (IKS), Ministry of Education, Indian Institute of Management (IIM), Sambalpur, Indian Institute of Technology (IIT), Kharagpur and Indian Institute of Technology (IIT), Bhubaneswar for establishment of Odisha Research Centre. Following that ORC was inaugurated on 26th November 2023, by the Hon'ble Minister of Education, Shri Dharmendra Pradhan, in the august presence of the Hon'ble Governors of Odisha, Shri Raghubar Das, Hon'ble Governors of Chhattisgarh, Shri Biswabhusan Harichandan, Shri Bhartruhari Mahtab, MP and other dignitaries.

Objectives of ORC

The ORC objectives encompass the key areas of the provided text, from research and academic collaboration to cultural preservation and educational curriculum development.

The primary objectives of the proposed Odisha Research Centre are as follows:

- 1. Epistemological Framework Development: Develop innovative epistemological frameworks for representing past and present aspects of Odisha's history, culture, and political economy. Emphasize intercultural, interdisciplinary, and holistic approaches to generate new knowledge modes.
- 2. Research and Scholar Collaboration: Conduct rigorous multidisciplinary research on both empirical and conceptual levels, fostering collaboration between scholars, researchers, and practitioners across diverse fields, such as history, anthropology, economics, and more. Explore the evolving socio-political dynamics of the Odishan region.

3. Academic and Public Engagement: Promote critical conversations between academic scholarship and various disciplinary practices, encouraging structured public awareness and engagement. Organize seminars, workshops, conferences, and exhibitions to showcase Odisha's unique identity and contributions.

4. Establishment of Odishan Studies: Establish Odishan Studies as a distinctive research program, challenging the Eurocentric perspective often found in 'South Asian Area Studies' programs. This initiative aims to position Odisha within the global South while revitalizing Indian knowledge traditions, thereby diversifying the field.

5. Archiving and Documentation: Document and archive various aspects of Odisha's heritage, including traditional knowledge systems, cultural practices, architecture, medicinal properties of flora and fauna, and Odisha's maritime history. Create a digital repository encompassing data, documents, images, videos, and audio to preserve and share this rich cultural heritage.

In nutshell, the objective of ORC is to develop the innovative epistemological frameworks for exploring diverse and nuanced dimensions of Odisha's history and culture. The Centre aims to encourage research and academic collaboration, public engagement, establishment of Odisha studies, archiving and documentation of Odisha's heritage. The research activities of the Centre will be focused on encouraging research and awareness in Odia Studies. The research initiatives at the center are structured around two principal domains: The Cultural Property Program and Reconfiguring Contemporary Odisha: Discourse and Praxis. Under the Cultural Property Program, the center dedicates its efforts to safeguarding and celebrating the rich cultural heritage of Odisha, meticulously documenting traditions, architecture, indigenous knowledge, and maritime history. In parallel, the center delves into the dynamic and ever-evolving landscape of contemporary Odisha, fostering a deep exploration of the region's discourse and praxis, thereby contributing to the modern-day socio-political and economic evolution of this culturally diverse state. These twin pillars of research exemplify the center's comprehensive approach to understanding and nurturing Odisha's past, present, and future.

ACCOUNTS

Separate Audit Report of the Comptroller & Auditor General of India on the Accounts of Indian Council of Social Science Research, New Delhi

We have audited the attached Balance Sheet of the Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR), New Delhi as at 31 March 2024, Income & Expenditure Account and Receipts & Payments Account for the year ended on that date under Section 20 (1) of the Comptroller and Auditor General's (Duties, Powers & Conditions of Service) Act, 1971. The audit has been entrusted for the period upto 2023-24. These financial statements include the accounts of six Regional centers of ICSSR. Out of these, one unit has been audited and comments considered for report. These financial statements are the responsibility of the ICSSR's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

2. This Separate Audit Report contains the comments of the Comptroller and Auditor General of India on the accounting treatment only with regard to classification, conformity with the best accounting practices, accounting standards and disclosure norms, etc. Audit observation on financial transactions with regard to compliance with the Law, Rules & Regulations (Propriety and Regularity) and efficiency-cum performance aspects, etc., if any, are reported through Inspection Reports/CAG's Audit Reports separately.
3. We have conducted our audit in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in India. These standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatements. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management as well as evaluating the overall presentation of financial statements. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.
4. Based on our audit, we report that:
 - i. We have obtained all the information and explanations, which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purpose of our audit;
 - ii. The Balance Sheet, Income & Expenditure and Receipts & Payments Account dealt with by this report have been drawn up in the format prescribed by Government of India, Ministry of Education;
 - iii. In our opinion, proper books of accounts and other relevant records have been maintained by the ICSSR in so far as it appears from our examination of such books.
 - iv. We further report that:

A. Balance Sheet

A.1 Liabilities

A.1.1 Current Liabilities & Provisions (Schedule 3) -Rs. 172.70 crore

The above does not include Rs.3.97 crore (unutilized balance of Rs. 3.22 crore refunded by the Institutions/Organizations out of the grants released to them by the ICSSR and transfer of Rs.75 lakh in the main account on account of closure of Earmarked/Endowment funds). Since, ICSSR is fully financed by the Government funding which includes release of grants by it to institutions/organization and Funding of Earmarked/Endowment Funds, ICSSR should not have shown the unutilized balance of Rs. 3.22 crore refunded by the institutions/organizations and transfer of

Rs. 75 lakh on closure of earmarked/endowment funds as Income. As the same is refundable to the Government of India, it should have been shown as Current Liabilities-Unutilized Grants-in-aid. This has resulted in understatement of Current Liabilities & Provisions and overstatement of Capital Fund by Rs. 3.97 crore.

B. Grants-in-aid

During the year 2023-24, ICSSR received Grants-in-aid of Rs. 224.62 crore from the Government of India, Ministry of Education, Department of Higher Education. It had an opening balance of grants-in-aid of Rs. 25.71 crore (Capital: Rs. 1.98 crore and Revenue: Rs. 23.73 crore) as on 1 April 2023. Out of total funds of Rs. 250.33 crore, it utilized Rs. 245.13 crore (Rs. 232.28 crore for revenue expenditure, Rs. 1.33 crore for capital expenditure & Rs. 11.52 crore Refund to Ministry) leaving a balance of Rs. 5.20 crore (Capital: Rs. 1.45 crore and Revenue: Rs. 3.75 crore) as on 31 March 2024.

C. Management Letter

Deficiencies which have not been included in the Audit Report have been brought to the notice of Member Secretary, ICSSR, Delhi through a Management Letter issued separately for remedial/corrective action.

- v. Subject to our observations in the preceding paragraphs, we report that the Balance Sheet, Income & Expenditure Account and Receipts & Payments Account dealt with by this report are in agreement with the books of accounts.
- vi. In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the said financial statements read together with the Accounting Policies and Notes on Accounts, and subject to the significant matters stated above and other matters mentioned in Annexure to this Audit Report give a true and fair view in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in India;
 - (i) In so far as it relates to the Balance Sheet of the state of affairs of the Indian Council of Social Science Research, New Delhi as at 31st March 2024; and
 - (ii) In so far as it relates to Income and Expenditure Account of the deficit for the year ended on that date.
