Revamped Poverty Estimates

The widening poverty within and across the region and states demands the reorganisation of development priority.

India's Progress beyond Demographic Indicators

The NFHS-5 hides more than it reveals on the demographic and health indicators.

Dalits in Rural Cooperatives of Nepal

The cooperative societies' function in eliminating prejudices and discrimination against Dalits in Nepal is analysed by interpolating various collective movement experiences. — Abin Ojha, Bibhuti Bhushan Malik

Foodstuffs Market Regulation

The present article discusses the provisions of the amended Essential Commodities (Amendment) Act, 2020 and its impact on the scope for regulation of the foodstuffs market. — Manish Kumar

Gendered Impact of Endosulfan Poisoning

This study focuses on the health conditions of endosulfan victims in Kerala, the socio-economic status of their households, and the effect on their female caretakers. — Daisy John, Nanda Kishore Kannuri

Marketing and Procurement of Cotton

The farmers' experiences related to cotton marketing are analysed based on the field survey data of the Adilabad district of Telangana. — Abhilasha A, Aidas Janaiah

Recognising Ambedkar: An Identity or An Idea?

Identity establishes an idea and idea constructs an identity, and both become indistinguishable in a political discourse that works at different levels in society. This is the dichotomy of the theory of recognition that is explored in this article. — Jadumani Mahanand

Lockdown and Reopening the Economy

This article explores the spatial dynamics of COVID-19—with nationwide and partial lockdowns in its two waves, respectively—in India by employing the location quotient and univariate Moran's I statistics. — Pritam Datta, Chetana Chaudhuri

Reimagining India's Social Science Research Policy

A pioneering study by 31 social scientists, across nine research institutes, revealed that improvements through the national policy are imperative if the social sciences are to play their emancipatory role in knowledge creation and enlightenment. — Sukhadeo Thorat, Samar Verma

Development Banks and the Changing Contour of Industrial Credit

The gradual evolution of industrial credit in India in the last three decades is examined against the backdrop of significant structural change in ownership and regulation in the Indian banking sector. — Shromona Ganguly, Mohua Roy

Price Risk of Central Government Securities

The paper examines the determinants of price risk of the central government securities in India. The major contributions of the study are the quantification of price change differentials due to different bond characteristics. — Ajit Dayanandan, Jai Chander & N R V V M K Rajendra Kumar
